UNIT SYNOPSISES

AMN400 CONSUMER BEHAVIOUR
This unit provides an introduction to the area of consumer behaviour and a forum for discussion of theory and research in the field. The current state of consumer behaviour research will be reviewed and some of the emerging trends in the area are explored through several avenues of assessment. The unit provides the environment for students to conduct their own research in areas that are relevant, of interest to them and reflect the interdisciplinary nature of consumer behaviour.

Antirequisites: MIN419   Equivalents: AMX400   Credit points: 12   Contact hours: 3 per week   Campus: Gardens Point and External   Teaching period: 2011 SEM-1 and 2011 SEM-2

AMN401 INTEGRATED MARKETING COMMUNICATION
Integrated marketing communication (IMC) is a new discipline that seeks synergistic effect from integrating traditional marketing communication disciplines. This unit explores the development of IMC, looking at reasons for growth, barriers to implementation and organisation issues. Students are introduced to the strategic foundations of IMC, from consumer behaviour, to marketing strategy, to IMC campaign evaluation. The disciplines of advertising, public relations, direct response and sales promotion are then explored to highlight how each contributes to IMC planning.

AMN403 MARKETING AND SURVEY RESEARCH
This unit provides a detailed overview of marketing research to support decision making in the areas of advertising, integrated marketing communication, marketing and public relations. The unit builds an advanced understanding of the use of survey research to support the descriptive and predictive information needs of management in such areas as consumer opinions and behaviour, and stakeholder analyses. Students will explore issues related to survey research design, questionnaire development and administration, sampling, measurement, data analysis including descriptive and multivariate statistics and presentation of research results.

Antirequisites: MIN413   Equivalents: AMX403   Credit points: 12   Contact hours: 3 per week   Campus: Gardens Point and External   Teaching period: 2011 SEM-1 and 2011 SEM-2

AMN406 PROJECT
In this unit, students examine in detail a theoretical or empirical problem in one of the disciplines of advertising, marketing, public relations, or integrated marketing communication. The study is based in the published journal literature of the discipline and can involve primary research and analysis. Students can develop a communication audit of an organisation or a case study related to an organisation product or issue. Project supervision will be arranged by the Unit Coordinator through consultation with the student and available staff members.

Prerequisites: 60 credit points of approved prior studies in Advertising, Marketing and Public Relations units (AMN% units) Antirequisites: CON405   Equivalents: AMX406   Credit points: 24   Contact hours: 2-6 per week
Campus: Gardens Point
Teaching period: 2011 SEM-1, 2011 SEM-2 and 2011 SUM

AMN431 MARKETING INTERNATIONALLY

In this unit students are exposed to the theoretical and planning aspects of marketing internationally. Through an applied approach, theoretical issues such as segmentation of international markets, life cycle, contingency and network approaches to international market entry choice, and market development and extension are addressed. Planning issues cover the strategic marketing processes involved, including international market research, and their application to regions and countries primarily in the Asia/Pacific region or Europe. Students are trained in the practical application of these theoretical and planning aspects through the development of an extensive international marketing plan.
