Why choose this course?
An Honours degree signals to potential employers you are someone with exceptional ability, motivation and commitment to your field. It gives you the chance to integrate the practical and conceptual knowledge gained through your degree.

Overview
The Bachelor of Business (Honours) provides high-achieving undergraduate students with advanced analytical, theoretical and empirical skills that differentiate them from other graduates. The program can provide an edge in the workplace and prepare you for further research study.

As an Honours graduate you can clearly demonstrate an ability to undertake rigorous independent research.

Meeting minimum entry requirements does not guarantee entry into this course. Admission to the Honours program will depend on the availability of supervision, infrastructure and other required resources.

Mid-year entry students
Mid-year entry students should contact the Honours Discipline Coordinators for enrolment advice and course progression details. The majors in Accountancy, Economics, Finance, and Philanthropy and Nonprofit Studies are not available for mid-year entry due to unit availability. Mid-year entry to any major cannot be guaranteed and is subject to supervisor and unit availability.

Course design
Students must complete four coursework units (48 credit points) and a dissertation (48 credit points) as per the programs of study described under the individual majors.

Unit requisite requirements are deemed to have been satisfied upon admission to this course. Where option (elective) units may be undertaken, students should check... requisite requirements in the unit synopsis section of the QUT Handbook and obtain approval from the Subject Area Coordinator prior to enrolment.

Grades are awarded for each of the individual coursework units. The dissertation, which is currently given the weight of four units, is also graded. The degree is awarded at a certain level ranging from first class to third class Honours.

Important course specific enrolment advice

The Business School will provide students with up to $600 for approved research related expenses associated with the preparation of a thesis under the Business School’s Postgraduate Research Student Support Scheme. Schools may also provide additional funding assistance and/or opportunities for paid research assistant or tutoring work.
