Why choose this course?
Why choose a Master of Justice (Intelligence) offered by the School of Justice -
• External or distance education mode of delivery with no restrictions on location
• Courses that provide the opportunity for students to formalise their in-house professional career courses and work experience through recognition of prior learning
• Courses that provide the opportunity for students to apply work related issues to their studies
• Courses that articulate to higher degrees
• Courses that provide graduates with a high probability of employment because they possess well developed and comprehensive knowledge of the Australian legal, governance and justice framework and principles; a high level of understanding of comparative and international systems and human rights; and a sophisticated appreciation of the ethical frameworks in which both the Australian and International legal and justice systems operate.
• The use of integrated information and communications technology using discussion forums for enhanced learning.

Course structure
The Master of Justice (Intelligence) has been recognised as the only Intelligence course of its kind offered by an Australian university. The Australian Army and QUT have entered into a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) to offered Advanced Standing to students who have completed intelligence courses offered through the Army.

Convenience
This course offers the flexibility of external/on-line learning with study materials available through Blackboard. This aspect of the course delivery is important to those students who may be deployed at short notice and wishing to continue their studies at any location without having to withdraw or defer studies. However, students should be aware that there is a requirement that 1 unit is offered in the Intensive, On-campus mode of delivery for 1 full week of the semester (ie Monday to Friday 9am to 5pm). The unit, JSN106 Analytical Methods of Intelligence is a practical software component of the course and is not available as distance or external. Refer to ‘Advanced Standing’ notes below.

International Student Enrolments
International students might study this course in the External On-line mode in their home country. This course is not available to full-time international students wishing to study this course in Australia as it is not available as an Internal on-campus offering.

Full Time study option
This program can be undertaken as a full-time program by those students wishing to fast-track their studies by undertaking 4 units per semester. The structure of the course, and the way in which the units are offered across 2 semesters, allows students to complete a Master of Justice in 1 year with the standard full-time load.

Advanced Standing
Prospective students who have completed Analyst Notebook may be eligible for Advanced Standing towards JSN106 Analytical Methods of Intelligence. Applicants who can provide evidence of successfully completing Analyst Notebook, or demonstrate a high level of competency in the program can apply for Advanced Standing with the relevant documentation. The maximum number of units which can be credited to the course is four (4).

Course Coordinator
Dr Bell is the Course Coordinator for the masters and postgraduate programs currently offered at the School of Justice. He is also a member of the Singapore teaching team which exclusively delivers undergraduate units to members of the Singapore Police Force. Dr Bell holds advance degrees in education with a specific emphasis on police education and training, intelligence, transnational organised crime and counter-terrorism. Dr Bell has held senior analytical and operational positions with the Queensland Police Service, the Australian Bureau of Criminal Intelligence, the Australian Federal Police and the Organised Crime Agency of British Columbia- Canada (OCABC). He has travelled extensively and has been retained by various state and federal governments, law enforcement agencies, academic institutions, multi-national and crown corporations in Canada, the United States, Saudi Arabia, China, Thailand, Singapore, Hong Kong, Indonesia.
