Journalism Overview
This program suits those who have worked or studied in fields outside journalism and who now seek journalism skills or wish to change career paths into journalism. Those who currently work in journalism will benefit from this course by gaining skills to enhance their craft in a new media environment.

You will gain practical skills in writing and journalistic inquiry within a conceptual framework that includes ethics and legal issues. The masters program provides opportunities to tailor your studies to include units in new production, broadcast journalism and specialist journalism topics.

Course Structure
All Masters students are required to undertake either Journalism Ethics and Issues or Creative Industries Legal Issues as a Unit Option.

Previously Studied Pathway
If your undergraduate degree is in journalism, you can apply for the Previously Studied Pathway. This option allows you to apply for advanced standing so it is possible to complete your Master of Journalism in just one year full-time.

Limits on grades of 3
A new policy concerning grades of 3 came into effect from 1 January 2009 (QUT MOPP C/5.2). With effect from this date grades of 3 are no longer considered a conceded or low pass but are classified as a fail grade. Any grades of 3 awarded prior to 1 January 2009 retain the conceded pass status and will be counted for graduation purposes up to the maximum number of grades of 3 permitted for your course. Grades of 3 incurred in units that commence after 1 January 2009 will not count towards your degree. Further information is available on the Student Services website

Full time and Part time Course Structure

Units to be completed:
February and July entry (For students who have advanced standing of 48 credit points, full time entry is only available in February)
*Part time students will complete two units per semester.

Students should enrol in Innovation in the Creative Industries: Major Project, at the end of the program; in some cases KKP004-1 might be taken before that, and the final units then will be KKP004-2-4, with a List A or List B Unit Option.

UNIT SYNOPSES

AMN400 CONSUMER BEHAVIOUR
This unit provides an introduction to the area of consumer behaviour and a forum for discussion of theory and research in the field. The current state of consumer behaviour research will be reviewed and some of the emerging trends in the area are explored through several avenues of assessment. The unit provides the environment for students to conduct their own research in areas that are relevant, of interest to them and reflect the interdisciplinary nature of consumer behaviour.

Antirequisites: MIN419 Equivalents: AMX400 Credit points: 12 Contact hours: 3 per week Campus: Gardens Point and External Teaching period: 2011 SEM-1 and 2011 SEM-2

AMN420 ADVERTISING MANAGEMENT
This unit empowers students to make effective management decisions within the advertising process. It examines the setting of advertising objectives, and the need for coordination of these with marketing, communication and organisational objectives. It develops a sound understanding of advertising regulations and ethics, budgeting, research and campaign coordination. It further examines management's participation in the creative, media and production processes, and the contribution of advertising management to the cohesion and creativity of the agency.

Antirequisites: CON417 Equivalents: AMX420 Credit points: 12 Contact hours: 3 per week Campus: Gardens Point Teaching period: 2011 SEM-1 and 2011 SEM-2

KCB103 STRATEGIC SPEECH COMMUNICATION
This unit emphasises both the theory and practice of speech and interpersonal communication. It introduces theories of language, rhetoric and persuasion, which are interrelated to promote understanding and development of your communication skills. Classroom practice in simulated work situations will enhance the leadership skills you need to become articulate presenters in a range of contexts including personal presentations and interviews.

Equivalents: KCB213 Credit points: 12 Contact hours: 3 per week Campus: Kelvin Grove and Caboolture Teaching period: 2011 SEM-1 and 2011 SEM-2

KCB302 POLITICAL COMMUNICATION
This unit provides an overview of the theory and professional practices of political and parliamentary communication especially through the media and communications industries. The unit examines contemporary and historical political campaigns in Australia and internationally from the perspectives of media influence, strategic image and issue management, rhetorical models, and persuasion theory. The unit also considers how political campaign consultants plan and develop political campaigns.

Equivalents: KCB311 Credit points: 12 Contact hours: 4 per week Campus: Kelvin Grove Teaching period: 2011 SEM-1

KCB304 DESIGNING COMMUNICATION RESOURCES
Controlled media resources (such as brochures, booklets, information kits, promotional materials, and web sites) are common tools used during communication campaigns. This unit develops your abilities to devise effective resources for clients. You will develop critical and practical skills in evaluating resources, managing projects, researching the audience, writing and designing resources, testing your work, and seeing the product through to final production. The unit involves desktop publishing training, and offers you the opportunity to develop a print or electronic resource for a client.

Prerequisites: Completion of 72 credit points of study

Equivalents: KCB335 Credit points: 12 Contact hours: 5.5 per week Campus: Kelvin Grove Teaching period: 2011 SEM-1

KCP407 APPLIED PROFESSIONAL COMMUNICATION
This unit hones your skills in professional communication and integrates the important skills of writing and presenting under a strategic planning framework. It includes a focus on leadership, teamwork, audience analysis, evaluation, and ethics.

Credit points: 12 Contact hours: 3 per week Campus: Kelvin Grove Teaching period: 2011 SEM-1

KCP408 EXPLORING NEW MEDIA WORLDS
This unit focuses on the relationships between individuals and communities that are afforded, extended, amplified and intensified as well as attenuated by new media technologies and practices. You will explore the contemporary worlds of connections, play, commerce and politics through the lenses of new media. In the process, you will examine, confront and challenge the notion of the boundaries surrounding new media such as the limits of embodiment, nation-state sovereignty and their infrastructures of laws and economics.

Antirequisites: KCB207
Equivalents: KCP402, KCP336

Teaching period: 2011 SEM-1 and 2011 SEM-2

KFB209 INTRODUCTION TO 3D COMPUTER GRAPHICS

The field of 3D computer graphics has grown from being a highly specialist field, supported by large film studios, into a vast and growing industry. Throughout film and television, scientific visualization, industrial and architectural design, physical modelling, animation and gaming; 3D visualisation has become a significant contributor to the construction of virtual worlds and the simulation of physical environments. This unit provides an introduction to the world of 3D graphics, paying particular attention to pre-production techniques, project management, 3D modelling techniques, and designing virtual environments. It establishes a foundation for advanced study in subsequent units on Real-time Computer Graphics and Virtual Environments. Theoretical understandings gained through lectures will be supplemented with technical skills in workshops, and applied to the production of 3D environments in design studios.

Credit points: 12
Teaching period: 2011 SEM-1

KFB205 PROGRAMMING FOR VISUAL DESIGNERS AND ARTISTS

As part of a contemporary art and design production, practitioners often need to understand aspects of computer programming. This unit provides artists and designers with an introduction to computer programming. It demonstrates how artists and designers use programming within their practices and introduces the principles of programming that will allow you to use computing as a tool for art and design innovation. The unit is presented in a manner that is suited to the learning styles of visual designers and artists, and requires no previous computer programming experience. These skills will developed and applied to the development of art and design outcomes in a studio setting.

Antirequisites: INB270
Assumed knowledge: Fluency in the use of typical multimedia software applications is assumed knowledge.
Equivalents: KIB210
Credit points: 12
Contact hours: 4 per week
Campus: Kelvin Grove
Teaching period: 2011 SEM-2

KIP426 ADVERTISING CREATIVE: COPYWRITING AND ART DIRECTION

Copywriting and art direction are fundamental to creative advertising practice. Both tasks exist at the front end of advertising: copywriters and art directors help to bring advertising campaigns to life through creative concept development, writing, and liaising with both clients and artists. This unit builds on the introductory creative advertising units. It examines contemporary advertising theory and practice and develops practical skills in writing and art directing. Case studies examine a wide range of advertising campaigns, including campaigns to sell products, corporate reputations, and not-for-profit organisations.
Prerequisites: KIP424, KCP404, or KCP360 (can be enrolled in the same teaching period)
Equivalents: KCP406, KCP362
Credit points: 12
Contact hours: 3 per week
Campus: Kelvin Grove
KJB211 LAYOUT AND DESIGN
In this unit, students will learn how to use visual mediums (e.g. words, pictures, headlines, fact boxes etc) to best communicate to a variety of journalism audiences.

Using the latest computer design package, students will be taught to apply design theory to publish journalistic copy, incorporating photographs, images, graphics, tables, headlines and captions. They will learn the importance of print size, spacing, columns, captions and other visual communication devices in capturing the attention of an increasingly visual literate society.

Prerequisites: KJB120 or KJP401 Credit points: 12 Contact hours: 3 per week
Campus: Kelvin Grove Teaching period: 2011 SEM-2

KJB222 ONLINE JOURNALISM 1
As increasing volumes of news and other factual material are processed through online media, practitioners and also intending citizen journalists stand to get a secure understanding from studying the social and economic underpinnings of the format, and also from acquiring skills for using it.

This unit explores the background to practice in online journalism, such as the place of the medium in contemporary mass communication; it promotes the principles of best practice in journalism, and enables students to publish reports online, giving them instruction in a wide range of production skills.

Prerequisites: KJB121 or KJP402 Credit points: 12 Contact hours: 3 per week
Campus: Kelvin Grove Teaching period: 2011 SEM-2

KJB239 JOURNALISM ETHICS AND ISSUES
QUT Journalism supports the development of socially responsible, ethical journalists. KJB239 is a core journalism unit. It begins with an overview of western and eastern moral philosophical traditions and moves on to examine current journalistic practice in the context of Australian and international news media operations, regulatory bodies and the stance of professional journalism organisations. Students generate ethical dilemmas and work through them individually, making difficult decisions about issues such as invasion of privacy, protection of sources and conflict of interest. The impact of developing information and communication technologies is also addressed.

Credit points: 12 Contact hours: 3.5 per week
Campus: Kelvin Grove Teaching period: 2011 SEM-1

KJB280 INTERNATIONAL JOURNALISM
This unit identifies, compares and analyses the diversity of journalistic practice in different countries and regions. You will look at historical conditions that have led to variations in journalism across the world, how different politico-economic systems affect journalistic activity, and how and why different news media take distinct approaches to covering world issues. You will develop the cross-cultural awareness and background knowledge required to identify story ideas, relate to sources and produce news reports in different countries and cultural environments.

Prerequisites: KJB120 or KJP401 Credit points: 12 Contact hours: 4 per week
Campus: Kelvin Grove Teaching period: 2011 SEM-2

KJB304 SUB-EDITING
This unit builds on KJB211 (Layout and Design) and is aimed at teaching students how to assess text for publication in the journalism industry which is a highly sought skill for employment both within Australia and overseas. Students will assess the text for news values, quality, photographs, supporting stories, applying style guides (both generic and in-house), grammar, spelling, accuracy, verification, its legality (including defamation, contempt and sub-judice), ethics, sources and balance. Students, individually and in small teams, will be given a range of copy-text from very poor to reasonable on a variety of topics which will be made publishable (i.e. production-ready) by them working with their tutor using the above processes.

Prerequisites: KJB120 or KJP400 Credit points: 12 Contact hours: 3 per week
Campus: Kelvin Grove Teaching period: 2011 SEM-1

KJB323 ONLINE JOURNALISM 2
All media outlets now have a visible and increasing online news presence. This unit builds on the foundations established in Online Journalism 1 to equip students with the skills and theory needed to compete in this multimedia news world. Students will receive practical hands-on training allowing them to incorporate text, audio, video and still images into timely online news and feature reports. They will be required to consider the application other online communication tools (Blogs, wikis, Myspace, YouTube etc) in a modern journalistic environment. The praxis-based unit will see students work in rostered teams to create journalistic copy to be published online. They will also work independently to develop individual news or feature story highlighting the innovative possibilities of the online journalism medium.

Prerequisites: KJB222 Credit points: 12 Contact hours: 1 per week
Campus: Kelvin Grove Teaching period: 2011 SEM-1

KJP400 THEORIES OF JOURNALISM
This unit includes the following: a summary of the body of literature pertaining to the theories of journalism; identification of individual research interests; attention to the empirical traditions; summary of issues at an advanced level from journalists’ perspectives through close reading of core texts.

Equivalents: KJP105  Credit points: 12  Contact hours: 3 per week  Campus: Kelvin Grove  Teaching period: 2011 SEM-1

KJP401 NEWSWRITING
In this unit you learn to think like journalists, to evaluate events for their potential news value, to record interviews and perform other reporting tasks and to write news stories; the evolution and theories of reporting.

Equivalents: KJP120  Credit points: 12  Contact hours: 3 per week, plus several seminars during semester  Campus: Kelvin Grove  Teaching period: 2011 SEM-1 and 2011 SEM-2

KJP402 JOURNALISTIC INQUIRY
This unit develops the basic skills learnt in Newswriting: generating story ideas; researching; conducting interviews; finding news values and news angles and applying them in a practical context.

You also learn about how practical newswriting skills fit into an online environment. You are introduced to the rigours of deadlines and will have opportunities to write stories related to different news rounds throughout the semester.

Antirequisites: KVP402  Equivalents: KJP121  Credit points: 12  Contact hours: 3 per week  Campus: Kelvin Grove  Teaching period: 2011 SEM-1 and 2011 SEM-2

KJP403 FEATURE WRITING
In this unit you will conduct interviews and other research that you use to write Internet, newspaper and magazine articles that profile personalities or that treat processes, events and places to exploit their human-interest value.

Equivalents: KJP224  Credit points: 12  Contact hours: 3 per week, plus several seminars during semester  Campus: Kelvin Grove  Teaching period: 2011 SEM-1 and 2011 SEM-2

KJP404 RADIO AND TELEVISION JOURNALISM 1
In this unit the practical and theoretical aspects of radio and television media are studied and applied through production of broadcast news programs. You learn styles and use, and the evaluation of television and radio products. Strong emphasis is placed on current affairs knowledge.

Prerequisites: KJP401 or KJP120 or KJP402 or KJP121
Antirequisites: KJB235  Equivalents: KJP232  Credit points: 12  Contact hours: 5 per week  Campus: Kelvin Grove  Teaching period: 2011 SEM-2

KKB175 CREATIVE INDUSTRIES LEGAL ISSUES
This unit introduces Creative Industries students to the law which applies to their professional practice and theoretical study. The unit provides a foundational approach to general aspects of law as well as particular topics for students in these fields. The unit is based on a core set of lectures and tutorials which are offered in two strands: Strand 1 for Journalism and Media Communication; Strand 2 for other Creative practices.

Antirequisites: LWS009  Equivalents: KKB275  Credit points: 12  Contact hours: 3 per week  Campus: Kelvin Grove  Teaching period: 2011 SEM-2

KKB350 CREATIVE INDUSTRIES INTERNATIONAL STUDY TOUR
This unit is designed for students who have completed at least one year full time study of a QUT Creative Industries Faculty course and are ready to expand their horizons by gaining experience of international creative industries practice in creative cities. Creative cities contain tourist districts, art museums, galleries, fashion houses, creative precincts, production houses and the like, managed by internationally recognised cultural producers, designers and professionals. The unit addresses the issues that pertain to the culture that is produced and exhibited in the city or cities selected for the tour and provides the opportunity for students to interact with internationally recognised creative artists and cultural professionals.

IMPORTANT NOTE: The cost of the 2-3 week tour is estimated at between four and five thousand dollars.

Prerequisites: Completion of 72 credit points of study (K% units)  Credit points: 12  Contact hours: 2-3 week tour and several lectures during semester  Campus: Kelvin Grove  Teaching period: 2011 SEM-1 and 2011 SEM-2

KKN320 POSTGRADUATE WORKPLACE LEARNING
It is important that Creative Industries professionals gain real work experience in order to link university study with professional practice. Students need to equip themselves not only with skills and discipline knowledge but also with understandings and experience in order that they may function and flourish when they enter the workplace. This elective unit is offered during postgraduate courses so that students are able to apply appropriate, transferable skills to a workplace or professional context.
