Why choose this course?
The Bachelor of Fine Arts (BFA) provides a depth of knowledge in your chosen study area. As a graduate of the Bachelor of Fine Arts you are prepared for a rapidly evolving technological, professional and cultural landscape. You will learn how to make meaning through your creative process, and have the knowledge and skills to promote your work. You will be prepared to produce, display, promote and distribute your work through traditional and new technologies and channels.

Real-world learning
From your first year, you'll collaborate with students and teaching staff from across disciplines to reflect industry practice, and work on real-world projects briefed by real clients, along with career planning assistance to help you on your creative journey. As your course progresses you'll have opportunities to showcase your work and make meaningful industry connections through work integrated learning, internships and international study tours, public performances and exhibitions. You'll also participate in project-based learning experiences (situated creative practice units) collaborating with external partners.

Real-world facilities
At the most technically advanced creative space in Australia, you can develop your creativity and collaborate in technology-equipped exhibition spaces for multimedia displays and final-year showcases. Your will develop your craft with assistance from wired black box performance spaces for live experimental work, fully equipped and staffed performance spaces and dance studios. You can access computing studios for animation, interactive design, virtual reality, and tangible and embodied media design, motion capture facilities for animation, film and television studios, and post-production and editing suites.

Careers and outcomes
Many of our graduates gain international success and recognition in their creative practice. Like them, you'll be encouraged to develop your own creative identity, style, works or performances.
