Overview
As an established dance professional, you will gain advanced understanding and skills to contribute significantly to dance development and practice through a project-based program supported by coursework. This program will extend, diversify and intensify your practice in a professional context. The Master of Fine Arts in Dance is available in creative practice and/or performance. You are able to negotiate individual, flexible study modes, which include a summer semester program, allowing you to complete in one year. Interdisciplinary projects and those involving the use of technology are encouraged.

Entry Requirements
A bachelor degree in dance and/or relevant professional dance experience.

Applicants are required to submit a video/DVD of their choreography/performance work and a one-page proposal outlining the focus of their study. If requested, supply documentation of professional work experience as detailed in Completing the PG Form.

International Student Entry
International students may enrol only in full-time programs.

KWP407 GREAT BOOKS: THE LITERARY CLASSICS
This unit provides an overview of the enduring classic literary works. It will give you a better knowledge and understanding of the craft of storytelling and stimulate you to develop your own critical and creative writing as well as an understanding of yourself and others. The course commences with several of Chaucer's medieval tales and concludes with Vonnegut's modern anti-war classic Slaughterhouse Five. It includes Swift's biting satire and Emily Bronte's passionate Wuthering Heights. The unit aims to make such works accessible to students from all disciplines in the university, and provides valuable historical context and analysis of the writing craft in each case.
