Additional Requirements:

Entry to this course requires satisfactory completion of a bachelor degree in a relevant field of study from QUT, or a comparable degree from another institution, with a GPA of 5.5 or above (on a 7-point scale). Normally students will apply within the final year of their pass degree.

All applicants for Honours must provide the Faculty with a proposed project topic and short summary of the project and have identified a prospective supervisor from within their field of study. These applications are then subject to approval by the relevant Portfolio Director or other senior Faculty staff member.

Course highlights
- Extend your undergraduate studies to specialise in a more focused program of study.
- Undertake a research project with a written thesis with optional creative work.
- Could lead to a Masters or Doctorate degree.

Details:
Honours programs are an extension of undergraduate studies allowing you to specialise in your chosen field of study and explore a more focused program of activity. In many cases honours leads to research higher degree studies; however you will develop advanced competencies, skills and analytical abilities which are applicable to many types of employment in the creative industries.

Structures and Units

Course structure

You will undertake a unit in research design, an approved elective and a workshop related to your research. Your research project will culminate in a written thesis, creative work, or combination of these.

KKP400 HONOURS PROJECT
The Honours project is the major component of the Honours year in Creative Industries. As the Honours year builds upon a completed undergraduate degree, the project gives you the opportunity to pursue an in-depth project over two semesters that can be a) a thesis dissertation or b) a project is made up of critical work (an exegesis) produced in association with professional or creative practice. This work thus demonstrates advanced competence, skills or analytical ability in a chosen discipline and/or interdisciplinary skills or analytical ability. KKP400 is a multi-component unit and all five components must be completed to obtain final credit points.

Prerequisites: KKP400-1 (can be enrolled in the same teaching period)  Credit points: 12  Contact hours: 5 per week  Campus: Kelvin Grove  Teaching period: 2013 SEM-1 and 2013 SEM-2

KVP409 APPROACHES TO HONOURS ENQUIRY
There are many forms of enquiry suited to the diverse range of disciplines which make up the Creative Industries. These forms of enquiry typically fall within qualitative research traditions, creative practice as research and applied commercial research.

This unit plays a key role in your research degree by introducing you to the most appropriate form of enquiry for your study and providing you with the strategies, methods and protocols for designing, implementing and evaluating that study. You will be undertaking this unit with your Honours cohort and attending certain lectures in the postgraduate mode for this material, KKP601 Approaches to Enquiry in the Creative Industries, as nominated by the Honours Coordinator.

KWP623 REFLECTIVE PRACTICE IN ACTION
This unit introduces and explores the processes involved in undertaking critical, systematic reflection into professional and creative practice. While acknowledging that practice in the Creative Industries incorporates a multitude of processes and approaches across a range of disciplines in diverse contexts, this unit seeks to develop a personal and serviceable model for reflection on practice. The unit forms the basis for subsequent research in the professional practice research projects which drive the course.
