Entry requirements
A bachelor degree with an overall grade point average of 4.5 or above (on a 7-point scale).

Special entry
Applicants who do not met the entry requirements may be considered for special entry. Previous tertiary study, grade point average and documented relevant professional experience at an advanced level will be considered.

Course highlights
- Develop the leadership, management and administration skills needed to run productions, events and festivals.
- Develop practical skills in an industry-linked learning environment, taught by industry professionals.
- Study arts management, festival and event production, entrepreneurship, marketing and professional communication.
- Complete in 1 semester full-time or 2 semesters part-time.

Details:
As short-run productions, projects, events and festivals become the norm for the creative industries, the need for highly effective and educated event managers and producers has never been greater. These creative industries professionals require a range of skills and knowledge, including an awareness of current industrial agendas and trends, leadership skills, management and administration skills, communication skills, and effective market and audience development strategies.

Creative production and arts management study area
This course offers an industry-linked learning environment where professionals and academics in the field deliver informed, practical content. Connections with local and national leaders in arts, cultural and entertainment program delivery will ensure you benefit from their experience, mentorship and real-world project or internship opportunities. You will graduate with enhanced creative industries networks and the confidence to develop your own entrepreneurial projects, events and programs.

You can choose to study the skills most relevant to your professional development, including arts, cultural and entertainment industries policy; arts management; entertainment management; event, festival and venue management; entrepreneurship; enterprise development; law; marketing; and professional communication.

Assessment projects are practical and can be customised to your own interests and development needs as a producer of visual arts, theatre, dance, music, new media projects, television or film programs and events.

UNIT SYNOPSIS

AMN400 CONSUMER BEHAVIOUR
This unit provides an introduction to the area of consumer behaviour and a forum for discussion of theory and research in the field. The current state of consumer behaviour research will be reviewed and some of the emerging trends in the area are explored through several avenues of assessment. The unit provides the environment for students to conduct their own research in areas that are relevant, of interest to them and reflect the interdisciplinary nature of consumer behaviour.

Antirequisites: MIN419
Equivalents: AMX400
Credit points: 12
Contact hours: 3 per week
Campus: Gardens Point and External
Teaching period: 2013 SEM-1 and 2013 SEM-2

AMN420 ADVERTISING MANAGEMENT
This unit empowers students to make effective management decisions within the advertising process. It examines the setting of advertising objectives, and the need for coordination of these with marketing, communication and organisational objectives. It develops a sound understanding of advertising regulations and ethics, budgeting, research and campaign coordination. It further examines management's participation in the creative, media and production processes, and the contribution of advertising management to the cohesion and creativity of the agency.

Antirequisites: CON417
Equivalents: AMX420
Credit points: 12
Contact hours: 3 per week
Campus: Gardens Point
Teaching period: 2013 SEM-1 and 2013 SEM-2

KAP401 ADVERTISING CREATIVE: INTRODUCTION
This unit provides an introduction to the creative side of advertising, involving the analysis of advertising creative content, the development of creative strategies, creative concepts, and the crafting of persuasive ideas. The unit is the foundation for further work in creative advertising, and provides you with a thorough grounding in creative advertising history, industry practices, strategies and concept development.

Equivalents: KIP424, KCP404, KCP360
Credit points: 12
Campus: Kelvin Grove
Teaching period: 2013 SEM-1 and 2013 SEM-2

KAP402 ADVERTISING CREATIVE: COPYWRITING AND ART DIRECTION
Copywriting and art direction are fundamental to creative advertising practice. Both tasks exist at the front end of advertising: copywriters and art directors help to bring advertising campaigns to life through creative concept development. Case studies examine a wide range of advertising units. It examines contemporary advertising theory and practice and develops practical skills in writing and art directing. Case studies examine a wide range of advertising campaigns, including campaigns to sell products, corporate reputations, and not-for-profit organisations.

Campus: Kelvin Grove
Teaching period: 2013 SEM-2

KIB109 DESIGN FOR INTERACTIVE MEDIA

Designing for contemporary media requires a sophisticated understanding of how we effectively interact with new technologies, software applications, displays and environments. This unit focuses on the field of interaction design and user experience design. It develops an understanding of the theories, methods, and processes employed by Interaction Designers through a series of lectures and tutorials. These principles are then applied to authentic design briefs within design studios.

Prerequisites: KIB101 or KIB103 or KIB801 or KIB807 or KKB007 or KKB818 or KIP401 or KIB201 or KIB202
Equivalents: KIB214, KIB210
Credit points: 12
Campus: Kelvin Grove
Teaching period: 2013 SEM-1
and 2013 SEM-2

KIB120 GRAPHIC DESIGN
An ability to create and promote attractive and effective messages is the aim of graphic design. In this unit, you will build upon the knowledge and skills you have gained in visual communication to consolidate an advanced understanding of how graphic design works in our contemporary society. This unit is focused on the design process and projects (publications, corporate identity, digital media and advertising), therefore, there is an emphasis on skills and concepts that contribute to interpreting and responding to design briefs, and to developing creativity and design innovation.

Prerequisites: KIB101 or KIB801 or KIP401
Antirequisites: KVP401 Equivalent: KVB204
Credit points: 12
Campus: Kelvin Grove
Teaching period: 2013 SEM-2

KJP401 CRITICAL PRACTICES IN VISUAL DESIGN
Communication Design deals with visual communication and the creation of meaning through images. This unit will introduce you to the principles, production and presentation of visual design and communication.

Antirequisites: KIB101, KIB801
Credit points: 12
Contact hours: 4 per week
Campus: Kelvin Grove
Teaching period: 2013 SEM-1 and 2013 SEM-2

KJP402 DESIGNING INTERACTIONS
This unit further develops interface design skills for communications technologies including design priorities, visual systems, refinement of concepts, project analysis and problem solving through presentation models.

Antirequisites: KIB102, KIB802
Credit points: 12
Contact hours: 3.5 per week
Campus: Kelvin Grove
Teaching period: 2013 SEM-2

KJP403 USER EXPERIENCE DESIGN
This unit provides an introduction to theories and skills underpinning the application of multimedia technology with the Creative Industries, providing a foundation of conceptual and practical skills related to contemporary modes of electronic hypermedia production, communication and publishing.

Antirequisites: KIB103, KIB807
Credit points: 12
Contact hours: 3 per week
Campus: Kelvin Grove
Teaching period: 2013 SEM-1

KJP401 NEWSWRITING
In this unit you learn to think like journalists, to evaluate events for their potential news value, to record interviews and perform other reporting tasks and to write news stories; the evolution and theories of reporting.

Equivalents: KJP120
Credit points: 12
Contact hours: 3 per week, plus several seminars during semester

Campus: Kelvin Grove
Teaching period: 2013 SEM-1 and 2013 SEM-2

KJP402 JOURNALISTIC INQUIRY
This unit develops the basic skills learnt in Newswriting: generating story ideas; researching; conducting interviews; finding news values and news angles and applying them in a practical context. You also learn about how practical newswriting skills fit into an online environment. You are introduced to the rigours of deadlines and will have opportunities to write stories related to different news rounds throughout the semester.

Antirequisites: KVP402
Equivalents: KJP121
Credit points: 12
Contact hours: 3 per week
Campus: Kelvin Grove
Teaching period: 2013 SEM-1 and 2013 SEM-2

KJP403 FEATURE WRITING
In this unit you will conduct interviews and other research that you use to write Internet, newspaper and magazine articles that profile personalities or that treat processes, events and places to exploit their human-interest value.

Equivalents: KJP224
Credit points: 12
Contact hours: 3 per week, plus several seminars during semester
Campus: Kelvin Grove
Teaching period: 2013 SEM-1 and 2013 SEM-2

KJP420 PHOTOJOURNALISM
Digital media increase the communication opportunities and challenges confronting creative professionals. This unit provides both an understanding of this changing communication environment and the application of digital photography principles and digital photography skills to enhance communication practice with visual design elements.

In this unit students develop and apply digital photographic skills to explore this rapidly changing communication environment. Students enrolling in this unit should have a fundamental working knowledge of an SLR digital camera. Classes will explore technical approaches to digital photography, including press photography, photojournalism, documentary photography, landscape and portrait photography.

* KKP420 has been recoded KJP420 from 2013.
Equivalents: KKP420
Credit points: 12
Campus: Kelvin Grove
Teaching period: 2013 SEM-1 and 2013 SEM-2

KKN320 POSTGRADUATE WORKPLACE LEARNING
It is important that Creative Industries professionals gain real work experience in order to link university study with professional practice. Students need to equip themselves not only with skills and discipline knowledge but also with understandings and experience in order that they may function and flourish when they enter the workplace. This elective unit is offered during postgraduate courses so that students are able to apply appropriate, transferable skills to a workplace or professional context.

Equivalents: KKN330, KKN340-1, KKN340-2
Credit points: 12
Contact hours: Between 90 and 100 hours
Campus: Kelvin Grove
Teaching period: 2013 SEM-1, 2013 SEM-2 and 2013 SUM

KMB107 SOUND, IMAGE, TEXT
This unit focuses on the rich and varied relationship between sound and image in a number of media and artforms, including film, music video, theatre, installation, mixed media performance and many more.

Equivalents: KMB638
Credit points: 12
Contact hours: 2.5 per week
Campus: Kelvin Grove and Caboolture
Teaching period: 2013 SEM-2

KMB119 MUSIC AND SOUND PRODUCTION 1
This unit introduces students to the fundamentals of music and sound production through a mix of theory and practice. Students gain an understanding of sound recording, sound production and live sound reinforcement and develop listening skills essential for music and sound production.

Equivalents: KMB108, KMB621
Credit points: 12
Contact hours: 3 per week
Campus: Kelvin Grove
Teaching period: 2013 SEM-1

KMB129 MUSIC AND SOUND PRODUCTION 2
This unit builds on Music and Sound Production 1. It introduces students to sound synthesis and signal processing and extends the students understanding of the approaches and aesthetics underpinning creative music and sound production. Students will further develop practical skills in music and sound composition and deepen their knowledge of the hardware and software commonly used in creative production.

Equivalents: KMB105, KMB619
Credit points: 12
Contact hours: 3 per week
Campus: Kelvin Grove
Teaching period: 2013 SEM-2

KMB215 THE MUSIC INDUSTRY
This unit gives a working knowledge of the structural, legal and business aspects of the Australian music industry by engaging with real world music industry professionals and formulating a number of strategies to reflect this.

Equivalents: KMB301, KMB056
Credit points: 12
Campus: Kelvin Grove
Teaching period: 2013 SEM-2

KNB112 DRAWING FOR ANIMATION 1
There are many design principles and elements to consider in the conceptual development and presentation of an idea or visual message. The ability to apply drawing to such a task promotes the development of varied capabilities and technical skills: observation, description, meaning-making, recording, synthesis, interpretation and presentation in visual form. This unit will provide knowledge of the history and techniques of drawing, as well as core skills, and an understanding of its application for concept development, prototyping, and storyboarding. This will provide an important foundation for existing and evolving modes of constructing and presenting effective visual communication.

Equivalents: KIP408, KIB108, KNB121, KIB825
Credit points: 12
Campus: Kelvin Grove
Teaching period: 2013 SEM-1

KMB122 DRAWING FOR ANIMATION 2
Animation incorporates conventions and interpretations of dynamic structure in space and time. Core skills and knowledge of drawing provide an essential foundation for existing and evolving modes for construction and presenting animated kinetic images. The discipline of animation requires a diverse range of traditional drawing skills that have been introduced in the prerequisite unit and are now translated into moving images. The emphasis of this unit focuses on the conventions of dynamic animated images in kinetic applications.

Equivalents: KVB105, KVB755
Credit points: 12
Campus: Kelvin Grove
Teaching period: 2013 SEM-1

KMB211 3D ANIMATION 2
When creating animated content for production, it is important to develop a solid methodology that allows an animator to work quickly and creatively while maintaining an acceptable level of quality. Being able to take direction and creatively respond to a brief while finding the best way to communicate an idea to an audience is a core skill that takes time to develop. The core communication skills of illustration, motion, blocking and layout follow industry standards in pre-production, and are required for the generation and presentation of ideas, as well as the exploration of form and character.

Prerequisites: KMB124 or KIB111 or KIB107 or KIB203
Equivalents: KIB225, KIB106, KIB807
Credit points: 12
Campus: Kelvin Grove
Teaching period: 2013 SEM-2

KNP421 ANIMATION PRACTICES
This unit explores the creative potential offered by the study of the history and practice of animation. You will be introduced to the cultures and theoretical approaches of past and present animators and the contribution they have made to the development of the language of animation. You will be encouraged to critically analyse, engage with, and respond to their works and reflect on diverse approaches to the use of the medium. A critical approach, developed by this content, provides a context for developing your own personal style and ongoing practice.

Equivalents: KIP408, KIB108, KNB121, KIB825
Credit points: 12
Campus: Kelvin Grove
Teaching period: 2013 SEM-1
KNP423 ANIMATION AND MOTION GRAPHICS
The field of motion graphics has expanded rapidly, with its application extending beyond the role of cinematic storytelling to applications for title sequences, music promotion, marketing, computer games and information design. This unit provides an introduction to animation and motion graphics concepts and practices, with an emphasis on the principles of design in motion. This unit provides an introduction to the world of animated graphics, paying particular attention to pre-production techniques, design in motion, and idea generation. Through the development of screen-based works, you will apply traditional animation principles and techniques to communicate innovative temporal and spatial design solutions.
Equivalent: KIP405, KNB123, KIB105, KIB804 Credit points: 12 Campus: Kelvin Grove Teaching period: 2013 SEM-2

KPB207 FILM AND TELEVISION SCRIPTWRITING
This unit focuses on the production of a sustained script for film or television.
Equivalent: KWB229, KWB105 Credit points: 12 Contact hours: 3 per week Campus: Kelvin Grove Teaching period: 2013 SEM-1 and 2013 SEM-2

KTP401 CONTEMPORARY PERFORMANCE
School curriculum documents present Drama as a stable field of study. The elements of Drama and the conventions of various periods have provided the pivot around which genres and forms of Theatre can be studied. However, in recent decades a fresh species of Drama has emerged called Performance to challenge many of the traditional terms we use to define Theatre.
Antirequisites: KTB204 Equivalent: KTN002 Credit points: 12 Contact hours: 3 per week Campus: Kelvin Grove Teaching period: 2013 SEM-1

KTP406 CREATIVE INDUSTRIES: EVENTS AND FESTIVALS
Combination of a practical and theoretical investigation into how strategy and mission work in arts agencies in arts, events, promotion and public relations in Australia.
Antirequisites: KTB211 Credit points: 12 Contact hours: 3 per week Campus: Kelvin Grove Teaching period: 2013 SEM-2

KTP408 MARKETING ARTS AND CULTURE
This unit examines and applies theories of arts marketing for arts cultural organisations. The focus is on audience development, but product and service development models in the mission driven arts environment provide the context for you to develop marketing strategies, marketing plans and campaigns for arts and cultural management.
Equivalent: GSN228, KKP408 Credit points: 12

Contact hours: 3 per week Campus: Kelvin Grove Teaching period: 2013 SEM-2

KTP409 ARTS AND CULTURAL MANAGEMENT
This unit provides students of arts and cultural management with an investigation and analysis of the management function of the not-for-profit arts organisation. It examines the strategic management approaches and operational procedures of arts organisations, including their relationships with the legal system, the media, business, the public, and the industrial provisions and human resources of the organisation.
Equivalent: GSN227 Credit points: 12 Contact hours: 3 per week Campus: Kelvin Grove Teaching period: 2013 SEM-1

KTP413 MANAGING MONEY IN THE ARTS
Arts managers, event managers and creative producers play a critical role in taking great ideas to market. In this unit, you will examine the entrepreneurial strategies arts leaders use to implement their ideas in the current policy and economic climate. You will consider the role of corporate development, fundraising, grants, sponsorship and philanthropy.
Equivalent: KKP402, GSN225 Credit points: 12 Campus: Kelvin Grove Teaching period: 2013 SEM-1

KTP414 ARTS AND CULTURAL POLICY
In this unit, you will consider arts and creative industries policy initiatives in Australia, at Federal, state and local government levels, and internationally, with particular reference to the Asia-Pacific region. You will examine the way in which policy impacts on the work of creative producers, arts managers, and members of arts boards, and the role the arts manager plays in issues of governance, planning, advocacy, and accountability.

KWB211 STYLISTICS
This unit allows students to significantly advance their writing practice and associated critical and editorial skills through close analysis of language-level literary style, as opposed to story-level or narrative concerns. In creative writing advanced stylistics, students will work on unpacking, theorising and then replicating literary techniques used by a wide range of exemplary authors. This unit gives students a unique opportunity to consider and manipulate very specific aspects of their authorial voices, drawing on the field of literary theories, the Oulipo movement, reader response theorists, and other author-based literary theories and schools. Intensive studio-based work, self-directed creative practice, guided critical analysis and asynchronous on-line activities characterise the teaching and learning in this unit.

LWS011 JOURNALISM LAW
It is important that all professionals have a sound working knowledge of the legal considerations that apply to their professional practice. This is especially true for journalists who provide information and commentary for the public good and in the public interest. As such, the study of law is important for you for two reasons. First, the important role journalists play in society mean that there is a high level of legal and ethical in practice. Second, the public role journalists play in society mean that there is a high level of scrutiny on their actions. Legal transgressions by journalists can prove costly and painful for journalists, their families, friends, colleagues and employers.
