Overview
The Graduate Certificate in Creative Industries is an innovative postgraduate course that enables students to fuse creative talents with business and entrepreneurial skills, and unites artistic practitioners, managers and the consumer through cultural leadership. With the shift to micro-business development, it provides the business acumen and entrepreneurial skills to turn ideas into successful enterprises.

Music and Sound
The courses are targeted at mid-career professionals and those wishing to convert existing knowledge through engagement with new media theories and practices in the creative industries. This Study Area is aimed at professional performers and composers, music producers, music studio personnel and music educators. It is also valuable for people from other backgrounds wishing to broaden their existing knowledge and skills in music. Coursework will update musical skills and knowledge as well as creative, critical and reflective capabilities, which impact upon making/presenting/understanding music. Independent projects will extend professional and commercial practice.

Music and Sound Study Area
This Study Area explores the creative potential involved in the study of Music & Sound, as an artistic practitioner working within the creative industries. Students will be introduced to practical content that will assist with continuing personal practice. This Graduate Certificate provides an understanding of the fundamental principles of the Creative Industries. Skills-based units will give the practical expertise required through a combination of Music & Sound Study Area units. This Study Area aims to provide an understanding of the fundamental principles of Music & Sound and its application, or extend the expertise of current Music & Sound professionals practising within the context of the Creative Industries. Such a framework will aid in orientating futures as Music & Sound artistic practitioners or in associated practice, and will provide the critical tools for embarking on an informed vocational path.

Course Structure
To graduate with a Graduate Certificate in Creative Industries (Music & Sound), students are required to successfully complete 48 credit points, as specified in the Study Area structure.

Entry Requirements
An undergraduate degree with an overall minimum grade point average of 5.0 or above (on a 7-point scale). Students whose undergraduate degree is in a related creative industries discipline may apply for the Previously Studied Pathway. Applications without the requisite entry requirements will be considered for special entry. Please contact the Creative Industries Faculty for more information.

UNIT SYNOPSES

AMN400 CONSUMER BEHAVIOUR
This unit provides an introduction to the area of consumer behaviour and a forum for discussion of theory and research in the field. The current state of consumer behaviour research will be reviewed and some of the emerging trends in the area are explored through several avenues of assessment. The unit provides the environment for students to conduct their own research in areas that are relevant, of interest to them and reflect the interdisciplinary nature of consumer behaviour.
Antirequisites: MIN419  Credit points: 12  Contact hours: 3 per week  Campus: Gardens Point  Teaching period: 2010 SEM-1 and 2010 SEM-2

AMN420 ADVERTISING MANAGEMENT
This unit empowers students to make effective management decisions within the advertising process. It examines the setting of advertising objectives, and the need for coordination of these with marketing, communication and organisational objectives. It develops a sound understanding of advertising regulations and ethics, budgeting, research and campaign coordination. It further examines management's participation in the creative, media and production processes, and the contribution of advertising management to the cohesion and creativity of the agency.
Antirequisites: CON417  Credit points: 12  Contact hours: 3 per week  Campus: Gardens Point  Teaching period: 2010 SEM-1 and 2010 SEM-2

KCB103 STRATEGIC SPEECH COMMUNICATION
This unit is based in rhetorical and group communication theories, as a base for developing professionals who are articulate presenters, probing but empathic interviewers and interviewees, and good team players. Theory and practice are interrelated to develop understanding and self-reflexivity within students concerning their own communication skills, and to guide them to become effective leaders in the communication industries professions. Practice in simulated work situations will allow growth and learning in the laboratory of the classroom.
Equivalents: KCB213  Credit points: 12  Contact hours: 3 per week  Campus: Kelvin Grove and Caboolture  Teaching period: 2010 SEM-1 and 2010 SEM-2

KCB302 POLITICAL COMMUNICATION
This unit provides an overview of the theory and practice of political communication and the role of discursive strategies in the social construction of meaning, with particular reference to media and communications industries. The unit examines political campaigns in Australia and internationally, through a critical examination of theories of media influence, as well as notions of crisis management, rhetorical models, persuasion theory, and the use of images as a power resource to succeed in political campaigns. The unit explores how survey research helps the planning and development of political strategies through an analysis of their application in recent political campaigns.
Equivalents: KCB311  Credit points: 12  Contact hours: 4 per week  Campus: Kelvin Grove  Teaching period: 2010 SEM-1

KCB304 MANAGING COMMUNICATION RESOURCES
An understanding of controlled media (ie media in which the communicator, rather than a gatekeeper, controls the final content), in both print and electronic forms, is critical for professional communicators. Controlled media resources remain the most common tools developed during communication campaigns. This unit develops your ability to devise effective resources for clients. You will develop practical skills in managing media, researching the audience, writing and designing resources, testing their work, and seeing the product through to final production. This unit involves desktop publishing training and offers you an opportunity to develop a print or electronic resource for a client.
Prerequisites: Completion of 72 credit points of study  Antirequisites: KCB335  Credit points: 12  Contact hours: 5.5 per week  Campus: Kelvin Grove  Teaching period: 2010 SEM-1

KCP402 NEW MEDIA STUDIES
This unit considers the social, cultural, economic and political implications of development of new media technologies, such as the Internet and World Wide Web, broadband cable and satellite technologies. This unit considers the following: the historical development of technologies; different understandings of digital culture; the impact of new media forms upon cultural practices and modes of social interaction; the impact of new media in traditional media industries (print, broadcast) and areas such as entertainment and education; the legal, regulatory and policy issues arising from the development of new media technologies.
