Overview
The Graduate Certificate in Creative Industries is an innovative postgraduate course that enables students to fuse creative talents with business and entrepreneurial skills, and unites artistic practitioners, managers and the consumer through cultural leadership. With the shift to micro-business development, it provides the business acumen and entrepreneurial skills to turn ideas into successful enterprises.

Professional Communication
The courses are targeted at mid-career professionals and those wishing to convert existing knowledge through engagement with new media theories and practices in the creative industries. Professional communication is an integral aspect of all work environments, and highly developed skills in this area are much sought after by employers. This Study Area will hone workplace communication skills, giving the professional edge needed to communicate successfully at all levels of an organisation. Students will gain access to expertise in communication, writing, speaking, presentation skills, and leadership.

Professional Communication Study Area
This knowledge will situate the graduate within the creative industries by providing opportunities to explore interdisciplinary practice through theory, practice and production. This Study Area explores the creative potential involved in the study of professional communication as a practitioner working within the creative Industries. Students will be introduced to practical content that will assist continuing personal practice. This Graduate Certificate aims to provide an understanding of the fundamental principles of the Creative Industries. Skills-based units will give the practical expertise required through a combination of Professional Communication Study Area units to provide an understanding of the fundamental principles of professional communication and its application within the context of the Creative Industries.

Course Structure
To graduate with a Graduate Certificate in Creative Industries (Professional Communication), students are required to successfully complete 48 credit points, as specified in the Study Area structure.

Entry Requirements
An undergraduate degree with an overall minimum grade point average of 5.0 or above (on a 7-point scale). Students whose undergraduate degree is in a related creative industries discipline may apply for the Previously Studied Pathway. Applications without the requisite entry requirements will be considered for special entry. Please contact the Creative Industries Faculty for more information.

UNIT SYNOPTSES

AMN400 CONSUMER BEHAVIOUR
This unit provides an introduction to the area of consumer behaviour and a forum for discussion of theory and research in the field. The current state of consumer behaviour research will be reviewed and some of the emerging trends in the area are explored through several avenues of assessment. The unit provides the environment for students to conduct their own research in areas that are relevant, of interest to them and reflect the interdisciplinary nature of consumer behaviour.

Antirequisites: MIN419 Credit points: 12 Contact hours: 3 per week Campus: Gardens Point Teaching period: 2010 SEM-1 and 2010 SEM-2

AMN420 ADVERTISING MANAGEMENT
This unit empowers students to make effective management decisions within the advertising process. It examines the setting of advertising objectives, and the need for coordination of these with marketing, communication and organisational objectives. It develops a sound understanding of advertising regulations and ethics, budgeting, research and campaign coordination. It further examines management's participation in the creative, media and production processes, and the contribution of advertising management to the cohesion and creativity of the agency.

Antirequisites: CON417 Credit points: 12 Contact hours: 3 per week Campus: Gardens Point Teaching period: 2010 SEM-1 and 2010 SEM-2

KCB103 STRATEGIC SPEECH COMMUNICATION
This unit is based in rhetorical and group communication theories, as a base for developing professionals who are articulate presenters, probing but empathic interviewers and interviewees, and good team players. Theory and practice are interrelated to develop understanding and self-reflexivity within students concerning their own communication skills, and to guide them to become effective leaders in the communication industries professions. Practice in simulated work situations will allow growth and learning in the laboratory of the classroom.

Equivalents: KCB213 Credit points: 12 Contact hours: 3 per week Campus: Kelvin Grove and Caboolture Teaching period: 2010 SEM-1 and 2010 SEM-2

KCB302 POLITICAL COMMUNICATION
This unit provides an overview of the theory and practice of political communication and the role of discursive strategies in the social construction of meaning, with particular reference to media and communications industries. The unit examines political campaigns in Australia and internationally, through a critical examination of theories of media influence, as well as notions of crisis management, rhetorical models, persuasion theory, and the use of images as a power resource to succeed in political campaigns. The unit explores how survey research helps the planning and development of political strategies through an analysis of their application in recent political campaigns.

Equivalents: KCB311 Credit points: 12 Contact hours: 4 per week Campus: Kelvin Grove Teaching period: 2010 SEM-1

KCB304 MANAGING COMMUNICATION RESOURCES
An understanding of controlled media (ie media in which the communicator, rather than a gatekeeper, controls the final content), in both print and electronic forms, is critical for professional communicators. Controlled media resources remain the most common tools developed during communication campaigns. This unit develops your ability to devise effective resources for clients. You will develop practical skills in managing projects, researching the audience, writing and designing resources, testing their work, and seeing the product through to final production. This unit involves desktop publishing training and offers you an opportunity to develop a print or electronic resource for a client.

Prerequisites: Completion of 72 credit points of study
Equivalents: KCB335 Credit points: 12 Contact hours: 5.5 per week Campus: Kelvin Grove Teaching period: 2010 SEM-1

KCP402 NEW MEDIA STUDIES
This unit considers the social, cultural, economic and political implications of development of new media technologies, such as the Internet and World Wide Web, broadband cable and satellite technologies. This unit considers the following: the historical development of technologies; different understandings of digital culture; the impact of new media forms upon cultural practices and modes of social interaction; the impact of new media in traditional media industries (print, broadcast) and areas such as entertainment and education; the legal, regulatory and policy issues arising from the development of new media technologies.
Equivalent: KCP336  Credit points: 12  Contact hours: 4 per week  Campus: Kelvin Grove  Teaching period: 2010 SEM-2

KCP407 APPLIED PROFESSIONAL COMMUNICATION
This unit enhances skills in professional communication and integrates the important skills of writing and presenting under a strategic planning framework. It includes a focus on leadership, teamwork, audience analysis, evaluation, and ethics.
Credit points: 12  Contact hours: 3 per week  Campus: Kelvin Grove  Teaching period: 2010 SEM-1

KFB106 UNSPEAKABLE BEAUTY: A HISTORY OF FASHION AND STYLE
Fashion has been a defining feature of Western culture for over 500 years. Contemporary fashion regularly revisits earlier approaches to dressing the body. This unit studies key figures in the history of fashionable dress who defined the standards of beauty for their time. It provides students with a basis for understanding fashion as a significant form of visual culture as well as providing a vital sense of history.
Credit points: 12  Contact hours: 2.5 per week  Campus: Kelvin Grove  Teaching period: 2010 SEM-2

KFB205 FASHION AND STYLE JOURNALISM
This unit maps the scope and practice of fashion and style journalism in Australia and internationally. It will allow you to develop the skills necessary to conceptualise and produce fashion and style editorial content in a variety of styles and contexts.
Assumed knowledge: KFB103 plus completion of 72 credit points of study; or enrolment in a Creative Industries Postgraduate course is assumed knowledge  Equivalent: KJIB339  Credit points: 12  Contact hours: 3 per week  Campus: Kelvin Grove  Teaching period: 2010 SEM-2

KFB207 CONTEMPORARY FASHION
Fashion is a vital dimension to contemporary culture; it is art and industry, idea, image and product. In its truest sense all Fashion is Contemporary fashion. This unit draws on ideas developed in Introduction to Fashion to provide a context for the shifting terrain of contemporary fashion. The unit addresses content such as key developments in fashion since 1970, significant International and Australian contemporary designers and current trends in the consumption, production and presentation of fashion.
Credit points: 12  Contact hours: 3 per week  Campus: Kelvin Grove  Teaching period: 2010 SEM-2

KFB208 FASHION PORTFOLIO
In the fashion design and associated industries digital illustration/graphic and presentation skills are increasingly necessary to present creative and professional work.

Through the use of technology, fashion and textile designers, illustrators and photographers can present and enhance their applied creativity by augmenting traditional hand skills with a range of digital processes. This unit introduces the learner to this knowledge and to the processes and practices that will enable the student to develop a concept driven fashion portfolio.
Equivalent: KFB202, KFB201  Credit points: 12  Contact hours: 3 per week  Campus: Kelvin Grove  Teaching period: 2010 SEM-1 and 2010 SEM-2

KFB203 INTRODUCTION TO 3D COMPUTER GRAPHICS
The field of 3D computer graphics has grown from being a highly specialist field, supported by large film studios, into a vast and growing industry. Throughout film and television, scientific visualization, industrial and architectural design, physical modelling, animation and gaming; 3D visualisation has become a significant contributor to the construction of virtual worlds and the simulation of physical environments. This unit provides an introduction to the world of 3D graphics, paying particular attention to pre-production techniques, project management, 3D modelling techniques, and designing virtual environments. It establishes a foundation for advanced study in subsequent units on Real-time Computer Graphics and Virtual Environments. Theoretical understandings gained through lectures will be supplemented with technical skills in workshops, and applied to the production of 3D environments in design studios.
Credit points: 12  Contact hours: 3 per week  Campus: Kelvin Grove  Teaching period: 2010 SEM-1

KFB205 PROGRAMMING FOR VISUAL DESIGNERS AND ARTISTS
As part of a contemporary art and design production, practitioners often need to understand aspects of computer programming. This unit provides artists and designers with an introduction to computer programming. It demonstrates how artists and designers use programming within their practices and introduces the principles of programming that will allow you to use computing as a tool for art and design innovation. The unit is presented in a manner that is suited to the learning styles of visual designers and artists, and requires no previous
