Additional Requirements:
An undergraduate degree with an overall minimum grade point average of 5.0 or above (on a 7-point scale). Students whose undergraduate degree is in a related creative industries discipline may apply for the Previously Studied Pathway. Applications without the requisite entry requirements will be considered for special entry. Please contact the Creative Industries Faculty for more information.

To graduate with a Master of Creative Industries (Music & Sound) students are required to successfully complete 144 credit points, as specified in the Study Area structure. Advanced standing of up to 48 credit points however may be available to students who have completed an undergraduate degree in Music & Sound and meet the GPA requirements.

Course highlights
- Develop skills in technology necessary to work in the rapidly changing music industry
- Learn up-to-date, industry-relevant skills and techniques
- Study concepts in music genre, sound recording, musicianship, music technology and visual and audio integration

Details:
Like the creative industries as a whole, the music industry is evolving rapidly, with technology at the forefront of the production, performance and promotion of music. Musicians and producers with a future focus, self-reliance and an entrepreneurial nature are forging success in the industry, and increasingly music educators who embrace technology and contemporary genres are better equipped to keep young minds captivated.

Music and sound study area
Music and sound courses at QUT respond to changing industry needs by offering variety, teaching relevant skills and emphasising creativity and new music.
This course provides creative opportunities and teaches up-to-date, industry-relevant skills to those already working as professional performers and composers, music producers, music studio personnel and music educators. For those from other backgrounds, this course will broaden your existing knowledge and skills in music and sound.
You will explore your creative potential through your choice of units about music genre and context, the music industry, sound recording, musicianship, music technology and the relationship between sound and image.

Structures and Units
Any bachelor degree with a minimum grade point average of 5 (on a 7-point scale).
Applicants without the requisite entry requirements may be considered for special entry.

UNIT SYNOPSIS

AMN400 CONSUMER BEHAVIOUR
This unit provides an introduction to the area of consumer behaviour and a forum for discussion of theory and research in the field. The current state of consumer behaviour research will be reviewed and some of the emerging trends in the area are explored through several avenues of assessment. The unit provides the environment for students to conduct their own research in areas that are relevant, of interest to them and reflect the interdisciplinary nature of consumer behaviour.

Antirequisites: MIN419  Equivalents: AMX400  Credit points: 12  Contact hours: 3 per week  Campus: Gardens Point and External  Teaching period: 2013 SEM-1 and 2013 SEM-2

AMN420 ADVERTISING MANAGEMENT
This unit empowers students to make effective management decisions within the advertising process. It examines the setting of advertising objectives, and the need for coordination of these with marketing, communication and organisational objectives. It develops a sound understanding of advertising regulations and ethics, budgeting, research and campaign coordination. It further examines management's participation in the creative, media and production processes, and the contribution of advertising management to the cohesion and creativity of the agency.

Antirequisites: CON417  Equivalents: AMX420  Credit points: 12  Contact hours: 3 per week  Campus: Gardens Point  Teaching period: 2013 SEM-1 and 2013 SEM-2

KAP401 ADVERTISING CREATIVE: INTRODUCTION
This unit provides an introduction to the creative side of advertising, involving the analysis of advertising creative content, the development of creative strategies, creative concepts, and the crafting of persuasive ideas. The unit is the foundation for further work in creative advertising, and provides you with a thorough grounding in creative advertising history, industry practices, strategies and concept development.

Equivalents: KIP424, KCP404, KCP360  Credit points: 12  Campus: Kelvin Grove  Teaching period: 2013 SEM-1 and 2013 SEM-2

KAP402 ADVERTISING CREATIVE: COPYWRITING AND ART DIRECTION
Copywriting and art direction are fundamental to creative advertising practice. Both tasks exist at the front end of advertising: copywriters and art directors help to bring advertising campaigns to life through creative concept development, writing, and liaising with both clients and artists. This unit builds on the introductory creative advertising units. It examines contemporary advertising theory and practice and develops practical skills in writing and art directing. Case studies examine a wide range of advertising campaigns, including campaigns to sell products, corporate reputations, and not-for-profit organisations.

Prerequisites: KAP401 or KIP424 or KCP404 or KCP360 (can be enrolled in the same teaching period)

Equivalents: KIP426, KCP406, KCP362
Credit points: 12
Campus: Kelvin Grove

KKP002 20:20 VISION: IMAGINING THE CREATIVE FUTURE
One condition of late modernity is rapid change and an increasing rate of change. This unit will address the drivers of change, the impact change has now and is likely to have in the mid term and how the creative industries formulation responds to these larger societal forces. Understanding of the dynamics of these forces is crucial for creative industries practitioners and professional in order to shape a future characterised by the creation of innovative action, forms and thought.
Credit points: 12  Contact hours: 3 per week  Campus: Kelvin Grove  Teaching period: 2013 SEM-1 and 2013 SEM-2

KKP003 PROJECT DESIGN IN THE CREATIVE INDUSTRIES
The cohesive and reflexive nature of creative producers permits their successful skill transfer to a variety of employment. Understanding the importance of collaboration and professional networking in the Creative Industries is therefore essential. The unit aims to critique the relevance of collaboration and professional networking to the creative practitioner/manager and combines these with relevant project management skills.
Credit points: 12  Contact hours: 3 per week  Campus: Kelvin Grove  Teaching period: 2013 SEM-1 and 2013 SEM-2

KKP004 INNOVATION IN THE CREATIVE INDUSTRIES: MAJOR PROJECT
This major project is the final and culminating activity of the Master of Creative Industries. It serves to focus each candidate’s learning through a specifically designed and substantial project that seeks to realise innovations in the candidate’s practice or workplace. Each project will be designed to ‘fit’ the scale, scope and focus of 48 credit points.

This unit aims to provide the creative industries worker with an opportunity to plan, implement and evaluate a major project professional project in the Creative Industries. Such a project may be located in the candidate’s workplace, constructed as an internship with a innovative firm or company or a piece of scholarly enquiry which addresses the challenges of innovation within one of the creative industries.
Prerequisites: KKP004-1 (can be enrolled in the same teaching period)  Credit points: 12  Contact hours: Expected contact hours will average approximately 10-12 hours per week over the course of the semester.  Campus: Kelvin Grove  Teaching period: 2013 SEM-1 and 2013 SEM-2

KWB211 STYLISTICS
This unit allows students to significantly advance their writing practice and associated critical and editorial skills through close analysis of language-level literary style, as opposed to story-level or narrative concerns. In creative writing advanced stylistics, students will work on unpacking, theorising and then replicating literary techniques used by a wide range of exemplary authors. This unit gives students a unique opportunity to consider and manipulate very specific aspects of their authorial voices, drawing on the field of literary stylistics, the Oulipo movement, reader response theorists, and other author-based literary theories and schools. Intensive studio-based work, self-directed creative practice, guided critical analysis and asynchronous on-line activities characterise the teaching and learning in this unit.

LWS011 JOURNALISM LAW
It is important that all professionals have a sound working knowledge of the legal considerations that apply to their professional practice. This is especially true for journalists who provide information and commentary for the public good and in the public interest. As such, the study of law is important for you for two reasons. First, the important role journalists play in society mean that there is a high level of scrutiny on their actions. Legal transgressions by journalists can prove costly and painful for journalists, their families, friends, colleagues and employers.
