Course highlights
- Develop your creative skills and gain the expertise to work as a freelance or vocational writer.
- Work with mentors on a significant writing project and receive feedback from experienced editors to help you develop, write and market a manuscript.
- Study life writing, short stories, the novella, and literary and cultural studies.
- Opportunities to enter competitions, perform at public readings and festivals, and establish your networks with publishing houses at literary events.

Details:
Writers are in demand across a number of fields. The publishing industry, screen production, advertising agencies, magazines and new media outlets all require people with a flair for language. If you can channel your creativity into words and demonstrate advanced written communication competence, you will be sought after by employers and have the confidence to develop your own creative works.

Creative writing study area
The creative writing units provide you with the expertise and knowledge to develop your skills as either a freelance or vocational writer. An understanding of the fundamental principles of creative writing and its applications will serve as a theoretical backdrop for your creative practice.

A range of major writing forms is offered, including life writing, short stories or novella, in addition to units in literary and cultural studies. You may choose to develop your skills within a variety of genres, or gain specific skills in forms and techniques of interest to you.

When studied within the MCI, this study area provides the unique opportunity to work with writing mentors on a significant writing project. You can receive feedback from experienced editors with publishing industry connections to develop, write and market a manuscript.

You will be encouraged to enter your work in competitions, perform at public readings and festivals, and establish your own industry networks through our links with literary events and publishing houses.

UNIT SYNONYMES

AMN400 CONSUMER BEHAVIOUR
This unit provides an introduction to the area of consumer behaviour and a forum for discussion of theory and research in the field. The current state of consumer behaviour research will be reviewed and some of the emerging trends in the area are explored through several avenues of assessment. The unit provides the environment for students to conduct their own research in areas that are relevant, of interest to them and reflect the interdisciplinary nature of consumer behaviour.
Antirequisites: MIN419 Equivalents: AMX400 Credit points: 12 Contact hours: 3 per week Campus: Gardens Point and External Teaching period: 2013 SEM-1 and 2013 SEM-2

AMN420 ADVERTISING MANAGEMENT
This unit empowers students to make effective management decisions within the advertising process. It examines the setting of advertising objectives, and the need for coordination of these with marketing, communication and organisational objectives. It develops a sound understanding of advertising regulations and ethics, budgeting, research and campaign coordination. It further examines management's participation in the creative, media and production processes, and the contribution of advertising management to the cohesion and creativity of the agency.
Antirequisites: CON417 Equivalents: AMX420 Credit points: 12 Contact hours: 3 per week Campus: Gardens Point Teaching period: 2013 SEM-1 and 2013 SEM-2

KAP401 ADVERTISING CREATIVE: INTRODUCTION
This unit provides an introduction to the creative side of advertising, involving the analysis of advertising creative content, the development of creative strategies, creative concepts, and the crafting of persuasive ideas. The unit is the foundation for further work in creative advertising, and provides you with a thorough grounding in creative advertising history, industry practices, strategies and concept development.
Equivalents: KIP424, KCP404, KCP360 Credit points: 12 Campus: Kelvin Grove Teaching period: 2013 SEM-1 and 2013 SEM-2

KAP402 ADVERTISING CREATIVE: COPYWRITING AND ART DIRECTION
Copywriting and art direction are fundamental to creative advertising practice. Both tasks exist at the front end of advertising: copywriters and art directors help to bring advertising campaigns to life through creative concept... development, writing, and liaising with both clients and artists. This unit builds on the introductory creative advertising units. It examines contemporary advertising theory and practice and develops practical skills in writing and art directing. Case studies examine a wide range of advertising campaigns, including campaigns to sell products, corporate reputations, and not-for-profit organisations.

Prerequisites: KAP401 or KIP424 or KCP404 or KCP360
Equivalents: KIP426, KCP406, KCP362
Credit points: 12
Campus: Kelvin Grove
Teaching period: 2013 SEM-1 and 2013 SEM-2

KAP403 ADVERTISING CREATIVE: TRENDS IN NEW MEDIA

This unit develops core skills in the creative production of advertising for key electronic and print media: TV, radio, cinema, paper, print, magazine, and outdoors; with a strong emphasis on interactive and new media trends. It examines how creative advertisers use these media principles for creating effective ads; the media influence in the creative process; how to present concepts for each medium; and the roles, steps and components of creative advertising production. Through this process, you will expand your understanding of and skills in developing ads for the key electronic, print and new mediums.

KIB109 DESIGN FOR INTERACTIVE MEDIA
Designing for contemporary media requires a sophisticated understanding of how we effectively interact with new technologies, software applications, displays and environments. This unit focuses on the field of interaction design and user experience design. It develops an understanding of the theories, methods, and processes employed by Interaction Designers through a series of lectures and tutorials. These principles are then applied to authentic design briefs within design studios.
Prerequisites: KIB101 or KIB103 or KIB801 or KIB807 or KKB07 or KKB818 or KIP401 or KIB201 or KIB202  Equivalents: KIB214, KIB210  Credit points: 12  Campus: Kelvin Grove  Teaching period: 2013 SEM-1 and 2013 SEM-2

KIB120 GRAPHIC DESIGN
An ability to create and promote attractive and effective messages is the aim of graphic design. In this unit, you will build upon the knowledge and skills you have gained in visual communication to consolidate an advanced understanding of how graphic design works in our contemporary society. This unit is focused on the design process and projects (publications, corporate identity, digital media and advertising), therefore, there is an emphasis on skills and concepts that contribute to interpreting and responding to design briefs, and to developing creativity and design innovation.
Prerequisites: KIB101 or KIB801 or KIP401  Antirequisites: KVP401  Credit points: 12  Campus: Kelvin Grove  Teaching period: 2013 SEM-2

KIP402 DESIGNING INTERACTIONS
This unit further develops interface design skills for communications technologies including design priorities, visual systems, refinement of concepts, project analysis and problem solving through presentation models.
Antirequisites: KIB102, KIB802  Credit points: 12  Contact hours: 3.5 per week  Campus: Kelvin Grove  Teaching period: 2013 SEM-2

KIP403 USER EXPERIENCE DESIGN
This unit provides an introduction to theories and skills underpinning the application of multimedia technology with the Creative Industries, providing a foundation of conceptual and practical skills related to contemporary modes of electronic hypermedia production, communication and publishing.
Antirequisites: KIB103, KIB807  Credit points: 12  Contact hours: 3 per week  Campus: Kelvin Grove  Teaching period: 2013 SEM-1

KJP401 NEWSWRITING
In this unit you learn to think like journalists, to evaluate events for their potential news value, to record interviews and perform other reporting tasks and to write news stories; the evolution and theories of reporting.
Equivalents: KJP120  Credit points: 12  Contact hours: 3 per week, plus several seminars during semester  Campus: Kelvin Grove  Teaching period: 2013 SEM-1 and 2013 SEM-2

KJP402 JOURNALISTIC INQUIRY
This unit develops the basic skills learnt in Newswriting: generating story ideas; researching; conducting interviews; finding news values and news angles and applying them in a practical context. You also learn about how practical newswriting skills fit into an online environment. You are introduced to the rigours of deadlines and will have opportunities to write stories related to different news rounds throughout the semester.
Antirequisites: KVP402  Equivalents: KJP121  Credit points: 12  Contact hours: 3 per week  Campus: Kelvin Grove  Teaching period: 2013 SEM-1 and 2013 SEM-2

KJP403 FEATURE WRITING
In this unit you will conduct interviews and other research that you use to write Internet, newspaper and magazine articles that profile personalities or that treat processes, events and places to exploit their human-interest value.
Equivalents: KJP224  Credit points: 12  Contact hours: 3 per week, plus several seminars during semester  Campus: Kelvin Grove  Teaching period: 2013 SEM-1 and 2013 SEM-2
KJP420 PHOTOJOURNALISM
Digital media increase the communication opportunities and challenges confronting creative professionals. This unit provides both an understanding of this changing communication environment and the application of digital photography principles and digital photography skills to enhance communication practice with visual design elements.

In this unit students develop and apply digital photographic skills to explore this rapidly changing communication environment. Students enrolling in this unit should have a fundamental working knowledge of an SLR digital camera.

Classes will explore technical approaches to digital photography, including press photography, photojournalism, documentary photography, landscape and portrait photography.

* KJP420 has been re-coded KJP420 from 2013.

Equivalents: KKP420  Credit points: 12  Campus: Kelvin Grove  Teaching period: 2013 SEM-2

KKN320 POSTGRADUATE WORKPLACE LEARNING
It is important that Creative Industries professionals gain real work experience in order to link university study with professional practice. Students need to equip themselves not only with skills and discipline knowledge but also with understandings and experience in order that they may function and flourish when they enter the workplace. This elective unit is offered during postgraduate courses so that students are able to apply appropriate, transferable skills to a workplace or professional context.

Equivalents: KKN330, KKN340-1, KKN340-2  Credit points: 12  Contact hours: Between 90 and 100 hours duration  Campus: Kelvin Grove  Teaching period: 2013 SEM-1, 2013 SEM-2 and 2013 SUM

KKP001 ENTREPRENEURSHIP IN THE CREATIVE ECONOMY
Entrepreneurial skills are valuable assets to both the creative practitioner and creative industries management. This unit outlines the effectiveness of an entrepreneurial education in the creative economy. This unit aims to provide the creative industries practitioner/manager with an understanding of the theory and practice of entrepreneurship by integrating the concepts, definitions, skills and techniques required for an entrepreneurial approach to creative industries.

Credit points: 12  Contact hours: 3 per week  Campus: Kelvin Grove  Teaching period: 2013 SEM-1 and 2013 SEM-2

KKP002 20:20 VISION: IMAGINING THE CREATIVE FUTURE
One condition of late modernity is rapid change and an increasing rate of change. This unit will address the drivers of change, the impact change has now and is likely to have in the mid term and how the creative industries formulation responds to these larger societal forces. Understanding of the dynamics of these forces is crucial for creative industries practitioners and professional in order to shape a future characterised by the creation of innovative action, forms and thought.

Credit points: 12  Contact hours: 3 per week  Campus: Kelvin Grove  Teaching period: 2013 SEM-1 and 2013 SEM-2

KKP003 PROJECT DESIGN IN THE CREATIVE INDUSTRIES
This unit outlines the effectiveness of an entrepreneurial approach to creative industries. This major project is the final and culminating activity of the Master of Creative Industries. It serves to focus each student on applying their understandings and experience in order that they may function and flourish when they enter the workplace. This elective unit is offered during postgraduate courses so that students are able to apply appropriate, transferable skills to a workplace or professional context.

Equivalents: KKP420  Credit points: 12  Contact hours: 3 per week  Campus: Kelvin Grove  Teaching period: 2013 SEM-1 and 2013 SEM-2

KKP004 INNOVATION IN THE CREATIVE INDUSTRIES: MAJOR PROJECT
This major project is the final and culminating activity of the Master of Creative Industries. It serves to focus each student on applying their understandings and experience in order that they may function and flourish when they enter the workplace. This elective unit is offered during postgraduate courses so that students are able to apply appropriate, transferable skills to a workplace or professional context.

Prerequisites: KKP003  Credit points: 12  Contact hours: Expected contact hours will average approximately 10-12 hours per week over the course of the semester.

KMB107 SOUND, IMAGE, TEXT

This unit focuses on the rich and varied relationship between sound and image in a number of media and artforms, including film, music video, theatre, installation, mixed media performance and many more.

Equivalents: KMB638
Credit points: 12
Contact hours: 2.5 per week
Campus: Kelvin Grove and Caboolture
Teaching period: 2013 SEM-2

KMB119 MUSIC AND SOUND PRODUCTION 1

This unit introduces students to the fundamentals principles of music and sound production through a mix of theory and practice. Students gain an understanding of sound recording, sound production and live sound reinforcement and develop listening skills essential for music and sound production.

Equivalents: KMB108, KMB621
Credit points: 12
Contact hours: 3 per week
Campus: Kelvin Grove
Teaching period: 2013 SEM-1

KMB129 MUSIC AND SOUND PRODUCTION 2

This unit builds on Music and Sound Production 1. It introduces students to sound synthesis and signal processing and extends the students understanding of the approaches and aesthetics underpinning creative music and sound production. Students will further develop practical skills in music and sound composition and deepen their knowledge of the hardware and software commonly used in creative production.

Equivalents: KMB105, KMB619
Credit points: 12
Contact hours: 3 per week
Campus: Kelvin Grove
Teaching period: 2013 SEM-2

KMB215 THE MUSIC INDUSTRY

This unit gives a working knowledge of the structural, legal and business aspects of the Australian music industry by engaging with real world music industry professionals and formulating a number of strategies to reflect this.

Equivalents: KMB301, KMB056
Credit points: 12
Campus: Kelvin Grove  Teaching period: 2013 SEM-2

KNB112 DRAWING FOR ANIMATION 1
There are many design principles and elements to consider in the conceptual development and presentation of an idea or visual message. The ability to apply drawing to such a task promotes the development of varied capabilities and technical skills: observation, description, meaning-making, recording, synthesis, interpretation and presentation in visual form. This unit will provide knowledge of the history and techniques of drawing, as well as core skills, and an understanding of its application for concept development, prototyping, and storyboarding. This will provide an important foundation for existing and evolving modes of constructing and presenting effective visual communication.

Equivalent: KVB105, KVB755  Credit points: 12
Campus: Kelvin Grove  Teaching period: 2013 SEM-1

KNB122 DRAWING FOR ANIMATION 2
Animation incorporates conventions and interpretations of dynamic structure in space and time. Core skills and knowledge of drawing provide an essential foundation for existing and evolving modes for construction and presenting animated kinetic images. The discipline of animation requires a diverse range of traditional drawing skills that have been introduced in the prerequisite unit and are now translated into moving images. The emphasis of this unit focuses on the conventions of dynamic animated images in kinetic applications.

Equivalent: KVB106, KVB756  Credit points: 12
Campus: Kelvin Grove  Teaching period: 2013 SEM-2

KNB211 3D ANIMATION 2
When creating animated content for production, it is important to develop a solid methodology that allows an animator to work quickly and creatively while maintaining an acceptable level of quality. Being able to take direction and creatively respond to a brief while finding the best way to communicate an idea to an audience is a core skill that takes time to develop. The core communication skills of illustration, motion, blocking and layout follow industry standards in pre-production, and are required for the generation and presentation of ideas, as well as the exploration of form and character.

Prerequisites: KNB124 or KIB111 or KIB107 or KIB203
Equivalent: KIB225, KIB106, KIB807  Credit points: 12
Campus: Kelvin Grove  Teaching period: 2013 SEM-1

KNP421 ANIMATION PRACTICES
This unit explores the creative potential offered by the study of the history and practice of animation. You will be introduced to the cultures and theoretical approaches of past and present animators and the contribution they have made to the development of the language of animation. You will be encouraged to critically analyse, engage with, and respond to their works and reflect on diverse approaches to the use of the medium. A critical approach, developed by this content, provides a context for developing your own personal style and ongoing practice.

Equivalent: KIP408, KIB108, KNB121, KIB825  Credit points: 12
Campus: Kelvin Grove  Teaching period: 2013 SEM-1

KNP423 ANIMATION AND MOTION GRAPHICS
The field of motion graphics has expanded rapidly, with its application extending beyond the role of cinematic storytelling to applications for title sequences, music promotion, marketing, computer games and information design. This unit provides an introduction to animation and motion graphics concepts and practices, with an emphasis on the principles of design in motion. This unit provides an introduction to the world of animated graphics, paying particular attention to pre-production techniques, design in motion, and idea generation. Through the development of screen-based works, you will apply traditional animation principles and techniques to communicate innovative temporal and spatial design solutions.

Equivalent: KIP405, KNB123, KIB105, KIB804  Credit points: 12
Campus: Kelvin Grove  Teaching period: 2013 SEM-2

KPB207 FILM AND TELEVISION SCRIPTWRITING
This unit focuses on the production of a sustained script for film or television.

Equivalent: KWB229, KWB105  Credit points: 12
Contact hours: 3 per week
Campus: Kelvin Grove  Teaching period: 2013 SEM-1 and 2013 SEM-2

KTP401 CONTEMPORARY PERFORMANCE
School curriculum documents present Drama as a stable field of study. The elements of Drama and the conventions of various periods have provided the pivot around which genres and forms of Theatre can be studied. However, in recent decades a fresh species of Drama has emerged called Performance to challenge many of the traditional terms we use to define Theatre.

LWS011 JOURNALISM LAW
It is important that all professionals have a sound working knowledge of the legal considerations that apply to their professional practice. This is especially true for journalists who provide information and commentary for the public good and in the public interest. As such, the study of law is important for you for two reasons. First, the important role journalists play in a democratic society mean that journalists are endowed with a public responsibility to engage in sound legal and ethical in practice. Second, the public role journalists play in society mean that there is a high level of scrutiny on their actions. Legal transgressions by journalists can prove costly and painful for journalists, their families, friends, colleagues and employers.
