Course Overview
The Master of Creative Industries caters for the professional development of Creative Industries practitioners and related professionals. The course develops fundamental and advanced skills, knowledge and practice in the Creative Industries, while at the same time advancing abilities in communication, project management, leadership and project application. Thus, this innovative postgraduate course enables students to fuse creative talents with business and entrepreneurial skills, as the role of manager in the creative industries is to bring together the artist and the consumer through cultural leadership.

Interdisciplinary
This innovative postgraduate course enables you to fuse creative talents with business and entrepreneurial skills. Your role as a manager in the creative industries is to bring together the artist and the consumer through cultural leadership. The Interdisciplinary Study Area Options give students the opportunity to intensely engage in real projects with practitioners from industry and research centres as supervisors. The Interdisciplinary Study Area Option gives students the opportunity to intensely engage in real projects with practitioners from industry and research centres as supervisors.

Course Structure
To graduate with a Master of Creative Industries (Interdisciplinary) students are required to successfully complete 144 credit points, as specified in the Study Area structure. Advanced standing of up to 48 credit points however may be available to students who have completed an undergraduate degree in Interdisciplinary studies in the Creative Industries and meet the GPA requirements.

Interdisciplinary Study Area
The Core units introduce the creative industries, and the roles of professionals and practitioners who explore and exploit the expression of creativity for commercial and artistic gain. Interdisciplinary study explores wide-ranging communication skills, including digital, collaborative and written. This course aims to provide an understanding of the fundamental and advanced principles of the creative industries. Skills-based units will provide practical skills through a combination of Creative Industries units.

Previously Studied Pathway
If your undergraduate degree is in a related study area, you can apply for the Previously Studied Pathway. This option allows you to apply for advanced standing for the study area units, so it is possible to complete your Masters of Creative Industries in just one year full-time. You will develop skills in entrepreneurship and management, and half of your study will be dedicated to the major project of your choice.

Career Outcomes
The Interdisciplinary Study Area will be of interest to those who seek a creative career as an employee, consultant or in creative industries management.

Entry Requirements
An undergraduate degree with an overall minimum grade point average of 5.0 or above (on a 7-point scale). Students whose undergraduate degree is in a related creative industries discipline may apply for the Previously Studied Pathway. Applications without the requisite entry requirements will be considered for special entry. Please contact the Creative Industries Faculty for more information.

UNIT SYNOPSES

This unit provides an introduction to the area of consumer behaviour and a forum for discussion of theory and research in the field. The current state of consumer behaviour research will be reviewed and some of the emerging trends in the area are explored through several avenues of assessment. The unit provides the environment for students to conduct their own research in areas that are relevant, of interest to them and reflect the interdisciplinary nature of consumer behaviour.

Antirequisites: MIN419  Credit points: 12  Contact hours: 3 per week  Campus: Gardens Point  Teaching period: 2010 SEM-1 and 2010 SEM-2

AMN420 ADVERTISING MANAGEMENT

This unit empowers students to make effective management decisions within the advertising process. It examines the setting of advertising objectives, and the need for coordination of these with marketing, communication and organisational objectives. It develops a sound understanding of advertising regulations and ethics, budgeting, research and campaign coordination. It further examines management's participation in the creative, media and production processes, and the contribution of advertising management to the cohesion and creativity of the agency.

Antirequisites: CON417  Credit points: 12  Contact hours: 3 per week  Campus: Gardens Point  Teaching period: 2010 SEM-1 and 2010 SEM-2

KCB103 STRATEGIC SPEECH COMMUNICATION

This unit is based in rhetorical and group communication theories, as a base for developing professionals who are articulate presenters, probing but empathic interviewers and interviewees, and good team players. Theory and practice are interrelated to develop understanding and self-reflexivity within students concerning their own communication skills, and to guide them to become effective leaders in the communication industries professions. Practice in simulated work situations will allow growth and learning in the laboratory of the classroom.

Equivalents: KCB213  Credit points: 12  Contact hours: 3 per week  Campus: Kelvin Grove and Caboolture  Teaching period: 2010 SEM-1 and 2010 SEM-2

KCB302 POLITICAL COMMUNICATION

This unit provides an overview of the theory and practice of political communication and the role of discursive strategies in the social construction of meaning, with particular reference to media and communications industries. The unit examines political campaigns in Australia and internationally, through a critical examination of theories of media influence, as well as notions of crisis management, rhetorical models, persuasion theory, and the use of images.
as a power resource to succeed in political campaigns. The unit explores how survey research helps the planning and development of political strategies through an analysis of their application in recent political campaigns.

KFB304 MANAGING COMMUNICATION RESOURCES
An understanding of controlled media (ie media in which the communicator, rather than a gatekeeper, controls the final content), in both print and electronic forms, is critical for professional communicators. Controlled media resources remain the most common tools developed during communication campaigns. This unit develops your ability to devise effective resources for clients. You will develop practical skills in managing projects, researching the audience, writing and designing resources, testing their work, and seeing the product through to final production. This unit involves desktop publishing training and offers you an opportunity to develop a print or electronic resource for a client.

KIB203 INTRODUCTION TO 3D COMPUTER GRAPHICS
The field of 3D computer graphics has grown from being a highly specialist field, supported by large film studios, into a vast and growing industry. Throughout film and television, scientific visualization, industrial and architectural design, physical modelling, animation and gaming; 3D visualisation has become a significant contributor to the construction of virtual worlds and the simulation of physical environments. This unit provides an introduction to the world of 3D graphics, paying particular attention to pre-production techniques, project management, 3D modelling techniques, and designing virtual environments. It establishes a foundation for advanced study in subsequent units on Realtime Computer Graphics and Virtual Environments. Theoretical understandings gained through lectures will be supplemented with technical skills in workshops, and applied to the production of 3D environments in design studios.
Credit points: 12  Contact hours: 3 per week  Campus: Kelvin Grove  Teaching period: 2010 SEM-1

KIB205 PROGRAMMING FOR VISUAL DESIGNERS AND ARTISTS
As part of a contemporary art and design production, practitioners often need to understand aspects of computer programming. This unit provides artists and designers with an introduction to computer programming. It demonstrates how artists and designers use programming within their practices and introduces the principles of programming that will allow you to use computing as a tool for art and design innovation. The unit is presented in a manner that is suited to the learning styles of visual designers and artists, and requires no previous computer programming experience. These skills will developed and applied to the development of art and design outcomes in a studio setting.
Antirequisites: INB270  Assumed knowledge: Fluency in the use of typical multimedia software applications is assumed knowledge.
Equivalent: KIB210  Credit points: 12  Contact hours: 4 per week  Campus: Kelvin Grove  Teaching period: 2010 SEM-2

KIB214 DESIGN FOR INTERACTIVE MEDIA
Designing for contemporary media requires a sophisticated understanding of how we effectively interact with new technologies, software applications, displays and environments. This unit focuses on the field of interaction design and user experience design. It develops an understanding of the theories, methods, and processes employed by Interaction Designers through a series of lectures and tutorials. These principles are then applied to authentic design briefs within design studios.
Prerequisites: KIB102 or KIB202 or KIB802 or KIP402
Equivalent: KIB210  Credit points: 12  Contact hours: 3 per week  Campus: Kelvin Grove  Teaching period: 2010 SEM-1

KIB225 CHARACTER DEVELOPMENT, CONCEPTUAL DESIGN AND ANIMATION LAYOUT
This unit emphasizes production in practice. By considering type and generic attributes within a technological context, you will be guided through the key concepts involved in the development of working drawings and final artworks.
Prerequisites: KIB203 or KIB107  Equivalent: KIB106, KIB807  Credit points: 12  Contact hours: 3 per week  Campus: Kelvin Grove  Teaching period: 2010 SEM-2

KIP401 VISUAL COMMUNICATION

KKB350 CREATIVE INDUSTRIES INTERNATIONAL STUDY TOUR

This unit is designed for students who have completed at least one year full time study of a QUT Creative Industries Faculty course and are ready to expand their horizons by gaining experience of international creative industries practice in creative cities. Creative cities contain tourist districts, art museums, galleries, fashion houses, creative precincts, production houses and the like, managed by internationally recognised cultural producers, designers and professionals. The unit addresses the issues that pertain to the culture that is produced and exhibited in the city or cities selected for the tour and provides the opportunity for students to interact with internationally recognised creative artists and cultural professionals.

IMPORTANT NOTE: The cost of the 2-3 week tour is estimated at between four and five thousand dollars.

Prerequisites: Completion of 72 credit points of study (K% units)
Credit points: 12
Contact hours: 2-3 week tour and several lectures during semester
Campus: Kelvin Grove
Teaching period: 2010 SEM-2

KKN320 POSTGRADUATE WORKPLACE LEARNING

It is important that Creative Industries professionals gain real work experience in order to link university study with professional practice. Students need to equip themselves not only with skills and discipline knowledge but also with understandings and experience in order that they may function and flourish when they enter the workplace. This elective unit is offered during postgraduate courses so that students are able to apply appropriate, transferable skills to a workplace or professional context.

Equivalents: KKN330, KKN340-1, KKN340-2
Credit points: 12
Contact hours: Between 90 and 100 hours

KKP001 ENTREPRENEURSHIP IN THE CREATIVE ECONOMY

Entrepreneurial skills are valuable assets to both the creative practitioner and creative industries management. This unit outlines the effectiveness of an entrepreneurial education in the creative economy. This unit aims to provide the creative industries practitioner/management with an understanding of the theory and practice of entrepreneurship by integrating the concepts, definitions, skills and techniques required for an entrepreneurial approach to creative industries.
KKP002 20:20 VISION: IMAGINING THE CREATIVE FUTURE

One condition of late modernity is rapid change and an increasing rate of change. This unit will address the drivers of change, the impact change has now and is likely to have in the mid term and how the creative industries formulation responds to these larger societal forces. Understanding of the dynamics of these forces is crucial for creative industries practitioners and professional in order to shape a future characterised by the creation of innovative action, forms and thought.

Credit points: 12  Contact hours: 3 per week  Campus: Kelvin Grove  Teaching period: 2010 SEM-1 and 2010 SEM-2

KKP003 PROJECT DESIGN IN THE CREATIVE INDUSTRIES

The cohesive and reflexive nature of creative producers permits their successful skill transfer to a variety of employment. Understanding the importance of collaboration and professional networking in the Creative Industries is therefore essential. The unit aims to critique the relevance of collaboration and professional networking to the creative practitioner/manager and combine these with relevant project management skills.

KKP004 INNOVATION IN THE CREATIVE INDUSTRIES: MAJOR PROJECT

This major project is the final and culminating activity of the Master of Creative Industries. It serves to focus each candidate’s learning through a specifically designed and substantial project that seeks to realise innovations in the candidate’s practice or workplace. Each project will be designed to ‘fit’ the scale, scope and focus of 48 credit points.

This unit aims to provide the creative industries worker with an opportunity to plan, implement and evaluate a major project professional project in the Creative Industries. Such a project may be located in the candidate’s workplace, constructed as an internship with a innovative firm or company or a piece of scholarly enquiry which addresses the challenges of innovation within one of the creative industries.

Prerequisites: KKP004-3 (can be enrolled in the same teaching period)  Credit points: 12  Contact hours: Expected contact hours will average approximately 10-12 hours per week over the course of the semester.  Campus: Kelvin Grove  Teaching period: 2010 SEM-1 and 2010 SEM-2
