Why choose this course?

Law, Justice and Legal Practice form QUT’s Faculty of Law. Here, you will learn from academic staff who are highly involved in the legal and justice communities, use foremost on-line study facilities and legal technology and graduate with developed workplace skills.

Career outcomes

On average approximately 90% of QUT Law graduates are employed within four months of graduating or take on further study like the QUT Legal Practice Course to gain admission as solicitors. QUT Law graduates become solicitors, barristers, in-house counsel, government lawyers, policy officers and advisors or take on roles in business and industry.

Practical teaching

As a QUT Law student, you may undertake the elective units 'Internship', 'Learning in Professional Practice', 'Virtual Law Placement' and 'Legal Clinic' to gain legal experience in the public or private sector.

Workplace Skills

The QUT School of Law is a recognised leader in innovative legal education, particularly in the area of workplace skills. You will graduate with improved general, practical skills that better prepare you for employment. Workplace skills are carefully integrated into your course through a staged skills program. These include: negotiation, client interviewing, legal drafting, advocacy, legal research, IT skills and communication and problem solving.

Industry links

You may hone your courtroom and mooting (mock trial) skills through coaching by retired judges who are regularly appointed as Judges-in-Residence.

You will learn from academic staff with current firsthand experience. Many lecturers and tutors either work in or consult to the legal profession, government and other community organisations. Some law firms sponsor academic staff positions and have staff work for them on a regular basis. These include the Clayton Utz Professor in Public Law and the Gadens Professor in Property Law.

Course structure

The Bachelor of Laws includes the essential 11 fields of knowledge required to satisfy the academic requirements for admission as a legal practitioner. Unit offerings balance theory and practice and cover critical perspectives, research and legal reasoning, and principal areas of law. Recognising the practical and real-world nature of QUT, the Bachelor of Laws degree provides students with an opportunity to undertake a series of elective streams. These streams group legal content and legal skills units into alignment with the varied career destinations which a legal education opens to graduates. Students are given advice as to which units will allow them to experience aspects of legal practice in the fields that they are most interested in exploring, from suburban private practice to international work or legal policy development within government.

Facilities / technology

You have the chance to graduate will some of the most advanced IT skills in the law including electronic courtroom operation and procedure and on-line legal research. QUT has a state-of-the-art electronic courtroom and has links with leading university e-courts overseas, eg. Courtroom 21, University of Virginia, USA.

All study units have their own web page with study resources included.

Convenience

You may complete the QUT Bachelor of Laws in full-time or part-time modes. There is also an external option for distance students. The course is taught and administered at QUT’s Gardens Point (city) campus. So whether you are located in Brisbane or elsewhere, you may benefit from gaining a QUT law degree.

Scholarships
On enrolment into the Bachelor of Laws or related double degree, you may apply for a QUT Law Founders’ Scholarship. This is for first-year students who are socio-economically disadvantaged. Other scholarships available later in the course are the Blake Dawson Scholarship and the Shine External Studies Scholarship.

Distance Education (External) Special Entry Requirements
Entry to the distance education (external) mode of the course is restricted to students who reside in Australia outside the Brisbane City Council boundaries.

Students who reside within the Brisbane City Council may be considered under exceptional circumstances. A covering letter outlining your exceptional circumstances claim with supporting documentation must accompany your admission application form.

Other Course Requirements
It is a requirement that distance education students participate in two three-day attendance schools per year in addition to the orientation attendance school for commencing students only. The attendance schools are an integral component of the distance education course and are compulsory. When undertaking the course via distance education, it is the students responsibility to ensure they have access to a suitable law library.

Professional Recognition
The QUT Bachelor of Laws course is an approved degree for the purposes of the Legal Practitioners Admission Rules. Accordingly, it enables graduates to satisfy the academic requirements for admission to practise as a solicitor and/or barrister in all Australian states and territories. The QUT LLB degree qualification is also recognised for admission purposes in West and East Malaysia, Fiji and Papua New Guinea.

Career Outcomes
The defining nature of the QUT Bachelor of Laws is its real-world applied nature which will equip you with the high quality knowledge and skills and that meet the needs of the legal profession, government, business and industry. In developing the LLB the Faculty recognises that graduates are increasingly seeking a broad range of careers including, but not limited to, legal practice.

The flexible nature of the degree provides students with an opportunity to undertake a series of elective streams. These streams group legal content and legal skills units into alignment with the varied career destinations which a legal education opens to graduates and will allow you to study areas of the law that match your career aspirations.

Career opportunities include private practice as a barrister and/or solicitor; work in government departments; employment as an in-house lawyer; and a range of other occupations.

UNIT SYNOPSISES

LWB136 CONTRACTS A
This unit includes the following: formation of contracts; equitable estoppel; privity of contract; formalities; express and implied terms; an examination of promises which are legally binding; how contractual promises may be characterised and the significance of that characterisation.
Credit points: 12
Contact hours: 3 per week
Campus: Gardens Point and External
Teaching period: 2010 SEM-1 and 2010 SEM-2

LWB137 CONTRACTS B
Legally binding promises pervade society, from uncomplicated bargains like riding on a bus to complex multi-million dollar transactions. The law of contract provides an understanding of promises which are legally binding, how contractual promises may be characterised and the significance of that characterisation, and how contractual promises may be discharged or invalidated. This is the second of two associated units which examine the law of contract, the focus of this unit being on the discharge of contracts, remedies for breach and the invalidation of contracts. The two units together provide the foundation for several units encountered later in the course.

Prerequisites: LWB136
Credit points: 12
Contact hours: 3 hours per week
Campus: Gardens Point and External
Teaching period: 2010 SEM-1 and 2010 SEM-2

LWB145 LEGAL FOUNDATIONS A
The unit aims to provide foundational knowledge about law and legal concepts, the Australian legal system and constitution, sources of law (including their purpose and use) and the ethical underpinnings of the law and legal profession. The unit also aims to introduce, within real world contexts, the essential legal skills of case analysis, problem solving, legal writing, legal reasoning, legal research and statutory interpretation to enable students to progress in their study of law.

Credit points: 12
Contact hours: 3 per week
Campus: Gardens Point and External
Teaching period: 2010 SEM-1 and 2010 SEM-2

LWB146 LEGAL FOUNDATIONS B
The aim of this unit is for you to further develop, within real world contexts, the skills in legal research, analysis, problem solving and writing that were introduced in LWB145 Legal Foundations A. This aim is directed towards ensuring that by the end of the first year of your law degree you are able to perform tasks required to progress your study of law and that you can reflect on the continued development of your legal research and writing skills to equip you with the skills required in legal practice.

Prerequisites: LWB141 or LWB145
Credit points: 12
Contact hours: 3 per week
Campus: Gardens Point and External
Teaching period: 2010 SEM-1 and 2010 SEM-2

LWB147 TORTS A
The aims of this unit are for you to develop an understanding of the law of torts relating to trespass, negligence and workers’ compensation and the underlying principles and policies that influence the development of torts law. Further, this unit aims to demonstrate how the law of torts works in a real world context, with particular focus on legal problem solving and the teaching of legal interviewing skills. The unit will practise and develop the foundational legal skills introduced in LWB145 Legal Foundations A.

Corequisites: LWB145
Credit points: 12
Contact hours: 3 per week
Campus: Gardens Point and External
Teaching period: 2010 SEM-1 and 2010 SEM-2

LWB148 TORTS B
This unit aims to build upon the knowledge, understanding and skills developed in Torts A through a more in-depth examination of a wider range of torts and related issues. It also aims to equip you with a more detailed and sophisticated knowledge and understanding of how this area of the law is likely to develop in the 21st Century. Integral to this is the development of your skills, necessary for the practice of law and your further studies of law, in legal problem solving, research and written communication and an understanding of ethical issues related to the practice of law.

Prerequisites: LWB138 or LWB147
Corequisites: LWB146
Credit points: 12
Contact hours: 3 per week
Campus: Gardens Point and External
Teaching period: 2010 SEM-1 and 2010 SEM-2

LWB238 FUNDAMENTALS OF CRIMINAL LAW
An understanding of the principles of Criminal Law is of fundamental importance as it impinges upon almost every aspect of domestic, commercial, corporate and public activity in Queensland. The aim of this unit is to provide an overview of the aims and sources of Criminal Law in Queensland and to develop an understanding of the onus of proof in criminal matters. Additionally the unit explores the concept of fault elements, the criminal justice system and a selection of major offences while also developing advocacy skills.

Corequisites: LWB145
Credit points: 12
Contact hours: 3 per week
Campus: Gardens Point and External
Teaching period: 2010 SUM-2 and 2010 SEM-1

LWB239 CRIMINAL RESPONSIBILITY
The aim of this unit is to build upon the principles and skills explored in LWB238 by developing an understanding of the way criminal responsibility is imposed through the complicity provisions of the Criminal Code and the common law and how the major defences and excuses operate. The unit also examines the major sentencing principles applied in Queensland.

Prerequisites: LWB238  Credit points: 12  Contact hours: 3 per week  Campus: Gardens Point and External  Teaching period: 2010 SEM-2
