Course Overview
The Master of Creative Industries caters for the professional development of Creative Industries practitioners and related professionals. The course develops fundamental and advanced skills, knowledge and practice in the Creative Industries, while at the same time advancing abilities in communication, project management, leadership and project application. Thus, this innovative postgraduate course enables students to fuse creative talents with business and entrepreneurial skills, as the role of manager in the creative industries is to bring together the artist and the consumer through cultural leadership.

Creative Production and Arts Management
The Master of Creative Industries provide an opportunity for postgraduate students to engage in future visionary entrepreneurship and project design, and the specified Study Area Options give students the opportunity to intensely engage in real projects with practitioners from industry and research centres as supervisors.

The Creative Production & Arts Management Study Area has been designed in collaboration with industry specialists and offers an industry based learning environment where professionals and specialist academics in the field deliver an informed, yet practical suite of units. Connections with Brisbane Festivals and Australian industry leaders in festival and event production and Arts management will ensure students benefit from research and real-world project opportunities to learn.

Course Structure

To graduate with a Master of Creative Industries (Creative Production & Arts Management) students are required to successfully complete 144 credit points, as specified in the Study Area structure.

Creative Production & Arts Management is a specific field of study that requires strong practical capabilities, and students need to gain technical skills in this field. To achieve this, students who do not hold a bachelor degree will be offered a choice of undergraduate and postgraduate options that are specifically designed to build the technical skills required in Creative Production & Arts Management. Advanced standing of up to 48 credit points may be available to students who have completed an undergraduate degree in arts or creative industries management and meet the GPA requirements.

Creative Production and Arts Management Study Area
This course brings together management and technical skills in each Creative Production and Arts Management. It develops students’ creative potential as artistic practitioners and professionals in Creative Production & Arts Management settings. Students engage with and respond to festival organisational structures and theories of creative production, and are introduced to viable and practical content that will assist their continuing personal practice.

This course aims to provide an understanding of the fundamental principles of Creative Production & Arts Management and its application in festival contexts, as well as a theoretical framework for studio practice, including the historical and contemporary marketplace for professional work. Such a framework will position students for a future within the Creative Production & Arts Management industry or associated practices, and will provide the critical tools necessary for navigating a career within a volatile industry characterised by change.

Previously Studied Pathway
If your undergraduate degree is in a related study area, you can apply for the Previously Studied Pathway. This option allows you to apply for advanced standing for the study area units, so it is possible to complete your Masters of Creative Industries in just one year full-time. You will develop skills in entrepreneurship and management, and half of your study will be dedicated to the major project of your choice.

Career Outcomes
A career in Arts Management, or in creative production for events and festivals.
Entry Requirements
An undergraduate degree with an overall minimum grade point average of 5.0 or above (on a 7-point scale). Students whose undergraduate degree is in a related creative industries discipline may apply for the Previously Studied Pathway. Applications without the requisite entry requirements will be considered for special entry. Please contact the Creative Industries Faculty for more information.

UNIT SYNOPSES

AMN400 CONSUMER BEHAVIOUR
This unit provides an introduction to the area of consumer behaviour and a forum for discussion of theory and research in the field. The current state of consumer behaviour research will be reviewed and some of the emerging trends in the area are explored through several avenues of assessment. The unit provides the environment for students to conduct their own research in areas that are relevant, of interest to them and reflect the interdisciplinary nature of consumer behaviour.

Antirequisites: MIN419  Credit points: 12  Contact hours: 3 per week  Campus: Gardens Point  Teaching period: 2010 SEM-1 and 2010 SEM-2

AMN420 ADVERTISING MANAGEMENT
This unit empowers students to make effective management decisions within the advertising process. It examines the setting of advertising objectives, and the need for coordination of these with marketing, communication and organisational objectives. It develops a sound understanding of advertising regulations and ethics, budgeting, research and campaign coordination. It further examines management's participation in the creative, media and production processes, and the contribution of advertising management to the cohesion and creativity of the agency.

Antirequisites: CON417  Credit points: 12  Contact hours: 3 per week  Campus: Gardens Point  Teaching period: 2010 SEM-1 and 2010 SEM-2

KCB103 STRATEGIC SPEECH COMMUNICATION
This unit is based in rhetorical and group communication theories, as a base for developing professionals who are articulate presenters, probing but empathic interviewers and interviewees, and good team players. Theory and practice are interrelated to develop understanding and self-reflexivity within students concerning their own communication skills, and to guide them to become effective leaders in the communication industries professions. Practice in simulated work situations will allow growth and learning in the laboratory of the classroom.

Equivalents: KCB213  Credit points: 12  Contact hours: 3 per week  Campus: Kelvin Grove and Caboolture  Teaching period: 2010 SEM-1 and 2010 SEM-2

KCB302 POLITICAL COMMUNICATION
This unit provides an overview of the theory and practice of political communication and the role of discursive strategies in the social construction of meaning, with particular reference to media and communications industries. The unit

Potential Careers:

KFB106 UNSPEAKABLE BEAUTY: A HISTORY OF FASHION AND STYLE
Fashion has been a defining feature of Western culture for over 500 years. Contemporary fashion regularly revisits earlier approaches to dressing the body. This unit studies key figures in the history of fashionable dress who defined the standards of beauty for their time. It provides students with a basis for understanding fashion as a significant form of visual culture as well as providing a vital sense of history.

Credit points: 12
Contact hours: 2.5 per week
Campus: Kelvin Grove
Teaching period: 2010 SEM-2

KFB207 CONTEMPORARY FASHION
Fashion is a vital dimension to contemporary culture; it is art and industry, idea, image and product. In its truest sense all Fashion is Contemporary fashion. This unit draws on ideas developed in Introduction to Fashion to provide a context for the shifting terrain of contemporary fashion. The unit addresses content such as key developments in fashion since 1970, significant International and Australian contemporary designers and current trends in the consumption, production and presentation of fashion.

Credit points: 12
Contact hours: 3 per week
Campus: Kelvin Grove
Teaching period: 2010 SEM-2

KFB208 FASHION PORTFOLIO
In the fashion design and associated industries digital illustration/graphic and presentation skills are increasingly necessary to present creative and professional work. Through the use of technology, fashion and textile designers, illustrators and photographers can present and enhance their applied creativity by augmenting traditional hand skills with a range of digital processes. This unit introduces the learner to this knowledge and to the processes and practices that will enable the student to develop a concept driven fashion portfolio.

Credit points: 12
Contact hours: 3 per week
Campus: Kelvin Grove
Teaching period: 2010 SEM-1 and 2010 SEM-2
KIB108 ANIMATION HISTORY AND PRACTICES
The unit is an introductory examination of the development of animation. It addresses social, cultural, economic and technological themes that have shaped notable practitioners and established animation as a significant medium for the expression of popular culture, artistic experiment and philosophical, social and political comment.
Equivalent: KIB825 Credit points: 12 Contact hours: 3 per week Campus: Kelvin Grove Teaching period: 2010 SEM-1

KIB203 INTRODUCTION TO 3D COMPUTER GRAPHICS
The field of 3D computer graphics has grown from being a highly specialist field, supported by large film studios, into a vast and growing industry. Throughout film and television, scientific visualization, industrial and architectural design, physical modelling, animation and gaming; 3D visualisation has become a significant contributor to the construction of virtual worlds and the simulation of physical environments. This unit provides an introduction to the world of 3D graphics, paying particular attention to pre-production techniques, project management, 3D modelling techniques, and designing virtual environments. It establishes a foundation for advanced study in subsequent units on Real-time Computer Graphics and Virtual Environments. Theoretical understandings gained through lectures will be supplemented with technical skills in workshops, and applied to the production of 3D environments in design studios.
Credit points: 12 Contact hours: 3 per week Campus: Kelvin Grove Teaching period: 2010 SEM-1

KIB205 PROGRAMMING FOR VISUAL DESIGNERS AND ARTISTS
As part of a contemporary art and design production, practitioners often need to understand aspects of computer programming. This unit provides artists and designers with an introduction to computer programming. It demonstrates how artists and designers use programming within their practices and introduces the principles of programming that will allow you to use computing as a tool for art and design innovation. The unit is presented in a manner that is suited to the learning styles of visual designers and artists, and requires no previous computer programming experience. These skills will developed and applied to the development of art and design outcomes in a studio setting.
Prerequisites: INB270 Assumed knowledge: Fluency in the use of typical multimedia software applications is assumed knowledge. Equivalent: KIB210 Credit points: 12 Contact hours: 4 per week Campus: Kelvin Grove Teaching period: 2010 SEM-1

KIB214 DESIGN FOR INTERACTIVE MEDIA
Designing for contemporary media requires a sophisticated understanding of how we effectively interact with new technologies, software applications, displays and environments. This unit focuses on the field of interaction design and user experience design. It develops an understanding of the theories, methods, and processes employed by Interaction Designers through a series of lectures and tutorials. These principles are then applied to authentic design briefs within design studios.
Prerequisites: KIB102 or KIB202 or KIB802 or KIP402 Equivalent: KIB210 Credit points: 12 Contact hours: 3 per week Campus: Kelvin Grove Teaching period: 2010 SEM-1

KIB225 CHARACTER DEVELOPMENT, CONCEPTUAL DESIGN AND ANIMATION LAYOUT
This unit emphasizes production in practice. By considering type and generic attributes within a technological context, you will be guided through the key concepts involved in the development of working drawings and final artworks.
Prerequisites: KIB203 or KIB107 Equivalent: KIB106, KIB807 Credit points: 12 Contact hours: 3 per week Campus: Kelvin Grove Teaching period: 2010 SEM-2

KIP401 VISUAL COMMUNICATION
Communication Design deals with visual communication and the creation of meaning through images. This unit will introduce you to the principles, production and presentation of visual design and communication.
Prerequisites: KIB101, KIB801 Credit points: 12 Contact hours: 4 per week Campus: Kelvin Grove Teaching period: 2010 SEM-1 and 2010 SEM-2

KIP402 VISUAL INTERACTIONS
This unit further develops interface design skills for communications technologies including design priorities, visual systems, refinement of concepts, project analysis and problem solving through presentation models.
Prerequisites: KIB102, KIB802 Credit points: 12 Contact hours: 3.5 per week Campus: Kelvin Grove Teaching period: 2010 SEM-2

KIP403 INTRODUCTION TO WEB DESIGN AND DEVELOPMENT
This unit provides an introduction to theories and skills underpinning the application of multimedia technology with the Creative Industries, providing a foundation of conceptual and practical skills related to contemporary modes of electronic hypermedia production, communication and publishing.
Prerequisites: KIB103, KIB807 Credit points: 12 Contact hours: 3 per week Campus: Kelvin Grove Teaching period: 2010 SEM-1 and 2010 SEM-2
KIP404 DIGITAL MEDIA
This unit explores multimedia development and design concepts and practices and investigates the user and user interaction principles.
Antirequisites: KIB104, KIB808  Credit points: 12
Contact hours: 3 per week  Campus: Kelvin Grove
Teaching period: 2010 SEM-1 and 2010 SEM-2

KIP405 ANIMATION AND MOTION GRAPHICS
This unit provides an introduction to animation and motion graphics concepts and practices, with an emphasis on principles of design in motion.
Antirequisites: KIB105, KIB804  Credit points: 12
Contact hours: 3 per week  Campus: Kelvin Grove
Teaching period: 2010 SEM-2

KIP424 ADVERTISING CREATIVE: INTRODUCTION
This unit provides an introduction to the creative side of advertising, involving the analysis of advertising creative content, the development of creative strategies, creative concepts, and the crafting of persuasive ideas. The unit is the foundation for further work in creative advertising, and provides you with a thorough grounding in creative advertising history, industry practices, strategies and concept development.
Equivalents: KCP404, KCP360  Credit points: 12
Contact hours: 3 per week  Campus: Kelvin Grove
Teaching period: 2010 SEM-1 and 2010 SEM-2

KIP426 ADVERTISING CREATIVE: COPYWRITING AND ART DIRECTION
Copywriting and art direction are fundamental to creative advertising practice. Both tasks exist at the front end of advertising: copywriters and art directors help to bring advertising campaigns to life through creative concept development, writing, and liaising with both clients and artists. This unit builds on the introductory creative advertising units. It examines contemporary advertising theory and practice and develops practical skills in writing and art directing. Case studies examine a wide range of advertising campaigns, including campaigns to sell products, corporate reputations, and not-for-profit organisations.
Prerequisites: KIP424, KCP404, or KCP360 (can be enrolled in the same teaching period)  Equivalents: KCP406, KCP362  Credit points: 12
Contact hours: 3 per week  Campus: Kelvin Grove
Teaching period: 2010 SEM-2

KJB2239 JOURNALISM ETHICS AND ISSUES
QUT Journalism supports the development of socially responsible, ethical journalists. KJB239 is a core journalism unit. It begins with an overview of western and eastern moral philosophical traditions and moves on to examine current journalistic practice in the context of Australian and international news media operations, regulatory bodies and the stance of professional journalism organisations. Students generate ethical dilemmas and work through them individually, making difficult decisions about issues such as invasion of privacy, protection of sources and conflict of interest. The impact of developing information and communication technologies is also addressed.
Credit points: 12  Contact hours: 3.5 per week  Campus: Kelvin Grove
Teaching period: 2010 SEM-1

KJB211 LAYOUT AND DESIGN
In this unit, students will learn how to use visual mediums (e.g. words, pictures, headlines, fact boxes etc) to best communicate to a variety of journalism audiences.

Using the latest computer design package, students will be taught to apply design theory to publish journalistic copy, incorporating photographs, images, graphics, tables, headlines and captions. They will learn the importance of print size, spacing, columns, captions and other visual communication devices in capturing the attention of an increasingly visual literate society.

Prerequisites: KJB120 or KJP402  Equivalents: KJB322
Credit points: 12  Contact hours: 3 per week  Campus: Kelvin Grove
Teaching period: 2010 SEM-2

KJB222 ONLINE JOURNALISM 1
As increasing volumes of news and other factual material are processed through online media, practitioners and also intending citizen journalists stand to get a secure understanding from studying the social and economic underpinnings of the format, and also from acquiring skills for using it.

This unit explores the background to practice in online journalism, such as the place of the medium in contemporary mass communication; it promotes the principles of best practice in journalism, and enables students to publish reports on line, giving them instruction in a wide range of production skills.
Prerequisites: KJB121 or KJP402  Credit points: 12
Contact hours: 3 per week  Campus: Kelvin Grove
Teaching period: 2010 SEM-2

KJB239 JOURNALISM ETHICS AND ISSUES
This unit identifies, compares and analyses the diversity of journalistic practice in different countries and regions. You will look at historical conditions that have led to variations in journalism across the world, how different politico-economic systems affect journalistic activity, and how and why different news media take distinct approaches to covering world issues. You will develop the cross-cultural awareness and background knowledge required to identify story ideas, relate to sources and produce news reports in different countries and cultural environments.
Prerequisites: KJB120 or KJP400  Credit points: 12
Contact hours: 4 per week  Campus: Kelvin Grove  Teaching period: 2010 SEM-2

KJB304 SUB-EDITING
This unit builds on KJB211 (Layout and Design) and is aimed at teaching students how to assess text for publication in the journalism industry which is a highly sought skill for employment both within Australia and overseas. Students will assess the text for news' values, quality, photographs, supporting stories, applying style guides (both generic and in-house), grammar, spelling, accuracy, verification, its legality (including defamation, contempt and sub-judice), ethics, sources and balance. Students, individually and in small teams, will be given a range of copy-text from very poor to reasonable on a variety of topics which will be made publishable (i.e. production-ready) by them working with their tutor using the above processes.

Prerequisites: KJB120 or KJP400  Equivalents: KJB322  Credit points: 12  Contact hours: 3 per week  Campus: Kelvin Grove  Teaching period: 2010 SEM-1

KJP401 NEWSWRITING
In this unit you learn to think like journalists, to evaluate events for their potential news value, to record interviews and perform other reporting tasks and to write news stories; the evolution and theories of reporting.

Equivalents: KJP120  Credit points: 12  Contact hours: 3 per week, plus several seminars during semester  Campus: Kelvin Grove  Teaching period: 2010 SEM-1 and 2010 SEM-2

KJP402 JOURNALISTIC INQUIRY
This unit develops the basic skills learnt in Newswriting: generating story ideas; researching; conducting interviews; finding news values and news angles and applying them in a practical context.
You also learn about how practical newswriting skills fit into an online environment. You are introduced to the rigours of deadlines and will have opportunities to write stories related to different news rounds throughout the semester.

Equivalents: KJP121  Credit points: 12  Contact hours: 3 per week  Campus: Kelvin Grove  Teaching period: 2010 SEM-1 and 2010 SEM-2

KJP403 FEATURE WRITING
In this unit you will conduct interviews and other research that you use to write Internet, newspaper and magazine articles that profile personalities or that treat processes, events and places to exploit their human-interest value.

Equivalents: KJP224  Credit points: 12  Contact hours: 3 per week, plus several seminars during semester  Campus: Kelvin Grove  Teaching period: 2010 SEM-1 and 2010 SEM-2

KKB175 CREATIVE INDUSTRIES LEGAL ISSUES
This unit introduces Creative Industries students to the law which applies to their professional practice and theoretical study. The unit provides a foundational approach to general aspects of law as well as particular topics for students in these fields. The unit is based on a core set of lectures and tutorials which are offered in two strands: Strand 1 for Journalism and Media Communication; Strand 2 for other Creative practices.

Equivalents: KKB275  Credit points: 12  Contact hours: 3 per week  Campus: Kelvin Grove  Teaching period: 2010 SEM-2

KKB350 CREATIVE INDUSTRIES INTERNATIONAL STUDY TOUR
This unit is designed for students who have completed at least one year full time study of a QUT Creative Industries Faculty course and are ready to expand their horizons by gaining experience of international creative industries practice in creative cities. Creative cities contain tourist districts, art museums, galleries, fashion houses, creative precincts, production houses and the like, managed by internationally recognised cultural producers, designers and professionals. The unit addresses the issues that pertain to the culture that is produced and exhibited in the city or cities selected for the tour and provides the opportunity for students to interact with internationally recognised creative artists and cultural professionals.

IMPORTANT NOTE: The cost of the 2-3 week tour is estimated at between four and five thousand dollars.

Prerequisites: Completion of 72 credit points of study (K% units)  Credit points: 12  Contact hours: 2-3 week tour and several lectures during semester  Campus: Kelvin Grove  Teaching period: 2010 SEM-2

KKN320 POSTGRADUATE WORKPLACE LEARNING
It is important that Creative Industries professionals gain real work experience in order to link university study with professional practice. Students need to equip themselves not only with skills and discipline knowledge but also with understandings and experience in order that they may function and flourish when they enter the workplace. This elective unit is offered during postgraduate courses so that students are able to apply appropriate, transferable skills to a workplace or professional context.

Equivalents: KKN330, KKN340-1, KKN340-2  Credit points: 12  Contact hours: Between 90 and 100 hours duration  Campus: Kelvin Grove  Teaching period: 2010 SEM-1, 2010 SEM-2 and 2010 SUM

KKP001 ENTREPRENEURSHIP IN THE CREATIVE ECONOMY
Entrepreneurial skills are valuable assets to both the creative practitioner and creative industries management.
This unit outlines the effectiveness of an entrepreneurial education in the creative economy. This unit aims to provide the creative industries practitioner/management with an understanding of the theory and practice of entrepreneurship by integrating the concepts, definitions, skills and techniques required for an entrepreneurial approach to creative industries.

Credit points: 12
Contact hours: 3 per week
Campus: Kelvin Grove
Teaching period: 2010 SEM-1 and 2010 SEM-2

KKP002 20:20 VISION: IMAGINING THE CREATIVE FUTURE

One condition of late modernity is rapid change and an increasing rate of change. This unit will address the drivers of change, the impact change has now and is likely to have in the mid term and how the creative industries formulation responds to these larger societal forces.
